

'ANOTHER HOME TOWN BOY MAKES GOOD,' SAYS WILL

(Special To The News)

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Dec. 10.—Say, did you know that an old country boy from just 28 miles from Claremore, Okla., was secretary of war? His name is Pat Hurler. And he is making good right now. He had not much of a chance to be a politician. He had not much of a chance to be a politician. He had not much of a chance to be a politician.

Due to Pat we are able to wake up some day with presidential timber on our hands right down home. He was appointed because he had fought in two wars and six Oklahoma impeachments.

He was like Mr. Hoover, soon to realize that while the Democrats were always right, they were seldom president, so he relinquished his social standing and joined the great unexcused majority.

Yours, for the home town boys.

WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING IN NEW CASTLE!

New Castle police need to be revived on the campaign of eliminating double parking on the streets here. Several cars were double parked on Monday afternoon on North Mill St. in such a way as to block traffic going north. The same conditions are noted on other streets at times.

Likewise, cars were parked directly in front of no parking signs, and there they remained unmolested. If traffic regulations are to be of any use, they must be observed.

The city was blanketed in fog this morning, and it was late in the day before the fog had lifted to any extent. Weather "sharks" will forecast the weather for the next few weeks as a result, we presume. It will either be cold or warm. The predicted cold wave for early this week has evidently been detoured somewhere.

Decorated Christmas trees are making their appearance at some of the downtown stores, and indications are that there will be more Yuletide decorations of this kind downtown than ever before at the holiday season.

One railroad that enters New Castle has struck something new as far as safety reminders are concerned. On its station platforms between New Castle and Pittsburgh bright yellow steps have been painted at different angles and are jogged up so as not to be the same.

Several New Castle folk attended the closing showing of the 1929 international art exhibition at the East Washington street market. Included were the hides of a 17-point buck shot by John P. Boyles of 318 Lincoln avenue in Forest county; a four pointer shot by Dr. W. W. Horner, 22 Fairfield avenue, near Medix Run; a 12 pointer of George Truby's 305 Leasure avenue, shot in Cameron county; a six point buck shot by J. C. Fournier, 209 Elm street, shot at Muny's Clearing; a seven pointer shot by Dr. R. C.

This morning P. and O. workmen had strung Christmas festoon lights from the public square up East Washington street beyond North Mercer street and by tonight, goodly portion of one side of the street will be in readiness. The Yuletide in New Castle's downtown will be an elaborate one.

Once more it is stated that letters to The News, to receive consideration must be signed with the correct name and address of the writer. The News is glad to receive letters of comment, but requires that correct name and address be provided in the signature to letters that are to be printed.

FIND BOMB IN PALATIAL NORRIS HOME IN CHICAGO

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—An armed guard of detectives patrolled the spacious estate of James Norris, wealthy New York and Chicago broker, today as police revealed that a powerful dynamite bomb was found in the dining room of the Norris home Sunday evening as the family was gathering at the table.

The Norris Butler discovered the package of dynamite as he was opening the dining room curtains for the evening meal. A window had been raised and the bomb slipped onto the inside ledge.

A breeze or the movement of a curtain had extinguished the fuse after it burned half way. The explosive consisted of a 15 inch stick of dynamite, sufficient, according to police bomb-experts, to kill everyone in the room.

Norris had as his guest Sidney Strotz and his brother, Harold, brokers and heirs of the late C. N. Strotz. Their wives accompanied them. Police guards have been assigned to all three men.

Norris, formerly a New York broker, moved to Chicago a year ago to join an investment firm here. He recently purchased $600,000 worth of preferred stock in the Chicago Stadium, giving him a balance of power. November 18, Patrick Harmon was retired as manager of the sports enterprise.

Appearing as leading lady in a Chicago revue, Mrs. Charles H. Fargo, above, popular young matron, explains that she is merely working for the fun of it and for pin money.

Marines Not To Land At Haiti

Force Diverted To Guantanamo—Not Needed At Haiti

ORDER IS ISSUED BY STATE DEPARTMENT

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The 500 marines en route to Haiti to augment the present force of 700 in the negro republic, have been diverted to Guantanamo, the State Department announced this afternoon.

Secretary of State Stimson said he had wireless messages sent to the U. S. destroyer Wright, carrying the marines, to not proceed to Haiti because the situation there had clarified itself.

This action, Stimson said, was taken on recommendation of Brig. Gen. John H. Russell, U. S. commissioner in Haiti.

He issued this statement: "Cables received this morning indicate that the situation in Haiti is better, and that the cities where disturbances broke out are now under control.

"For this reason, on recommendation of Brig. Gen. John H. Russell, it has been decided that there is no present need of the additional force of marines and the Wright has been diverted and sent to Guantanamo."

The government did not state how long the marines, taken from the Quantico, Va., and Paris Island, S. C. barracks, will be kept at Guantanamo, but it is believed they will be held there for some time in event rioting breaks out in Haiti anew.

Third Pair Of Twins Born In New Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thomas of 520 Harbor street, who are the proud parents of a set of twins, a girl and a boy, born at the Jameson Memorial Hospital late last night, are also richer by $20 today, the gift of Hon. Fred L. Rentz, president of the board of directors of the hospital.

When the hospital was thrown open for use late in the summer, Mr. Rentz announced a list of awards for babies born at the institution. There was one for the first girl baby, one for the first boy baby, each $10, and a $20 award for the first set of boy twins, first set of girl twins, and the first set of mixed twins, a boy and a girl.

The first two awards were made within a few days after the institution was opened. Then a set of girl twins was born. On November 15, a set of boy twins was born and last night, the boy and girl arrived to Mr.

and Mrs. Thomas.

This completes the awards for the babies born at the hospital. Perhaps, Mr. Rentz may announce a prize of $30 if a set of triplets are born, they certainly would be worth it, but no statement has been made by him along this line as yet, and quadruplets—good night! They do happen occasionally, though, and they will be taken care of in a substantial way.

Mr. Rentz is going to make a special Christmas award, however, he stated this morning. For every child born during Christmas week, from midnight on December 24, until midnight on January 1, at the Jameson Memorial hospital, a special award of $5 will be made. This will be going Santa Claus one better, and will make a nice Christmas present for the baby fortunate enough to arrive at that time.

Police Baffled By Slaying Of School Teacher

Rockford, Illinois, Officials Stumped In Investigation Of Brutal Murder

WAS MURDERED
WITH LEAD PIPE

Several Love Affairs Revealed By Letters Will Be Probed For Possible Clues

(International News Service)

ROCKFORD, Ill., Dec. 10.—A baffling murder confronted the Rockford constabulary today as authorities sought a clue to the murder of comely Miss Cordelia Gummshelmer, high school teacher, clubbed to death in her bed Saturday night as she slept.

Discovery of several serious love affairs which the teacher has had turned the investigation into new channels and brought forth added possibilities, yet did not point to anything definite.

Purse Untouched
Police have abandoned the possibility that a robbery motive lay behind the slaying, for the instructor's purse lay untouched in her apartment.

Miss Gummshelmer's body was found Sunday night in her bed. She was clad in night garments and her skull had been crushed in by several blows from a lead pipe which lay nearby.

While police today turned to a scrutiny of a number of fervid love letters found in the victim's apartment, Dr. Floyd Leach, former Hollywood dentist, was in police custody.

Dr. Leach's offices are in the building adjoining the apartment house where Miss Gummshelmer was slain. When arrested Leach was clad in hunting attire, in his automobile were the bodies of three dead dogs and a cat. Police found a dead mouse in his trousers pocket also.

Curiously, all of the animals had their heads crushed, police said.

Woman Pleads Not Guilty To Murdering Of Two Children Left In Her Care

(International News Service)

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 10.—Gladys Mae Parks Baker, 38, when arraigned today before Justice Frank T. Lloyd, pleaded not guilty to two charges of murder growing out of the slaying of Dorothy and Timothy Rogers, children of Allan Rogers, Woodbury insurance agent.

The announcement was believed to have been made in order to squelch rumors that an appointment would be made tonight after the governor and his cabinet return from the funeral of the late Congressman W. W. Grist at Lancaster this afternoon.

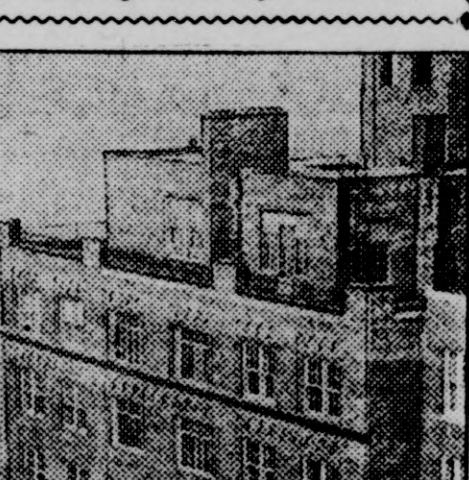

It is believed that the naming of Joseph R. Grundy to the vacant senate seat will be made by Governor Fisher tomorrow. The governor has been in telephonic communication with most of the county leaders regarding the appointment and expects to get in touch with W. L. Mellon, former state chairman, tonight.

Mellon has just returned from Florida and is in Washington today.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Eye witnesses to the Manhattan film fire today vividly described how, in a twinkling the studio was transformed into a blazing furnace. They told of the cry of "fire" then the panic and of men and women leaping from the windows.

One of the eye witnesses was John C. Plinn vice president of the Pathe company.

"I was seated in my office on the second floor with my Secretary, Frances Walsh, when a loud cry of fire rang through the building," said Plinn.

President Hoover's Spokesmen Seek To Have Senate Vote On Tax Reduction

TARIFF MEASURE
BEING DEBATED

Tariff War Has Become As Partisan As In Special Hoover Session

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The tariff and tax reduction issues were interlocked in the senate today with administration leaders seeking unanimous consent to lay aside the tariff long enough to pass the $160,000,000 tax reduction resolution.

President Hoover's spokesmen were trying to arrange for a gentleman's agreement to pass the measure Thursday or Friday. If they fail in their negotiations, Senator Watson (R) of Indiana will make a formal motion sometime during the week and probably on Friday, for immediate consideration of the tax slashing plan. The indications were it would pass by an ample margin, thus insuring enactment of tax reduction prior to Christmas.

The tariff war meanwhile became as partisan as it was in the special session, when a Democratic-insurgent coalition revivified a majority of the senate finance committee's recommendations. The present fight was centered around the woolen schedule, which was pending at the time congress ended its special session.

Thus far, the senate has approved a basic rate of 34 cents a pound clean content on wool. The same rate was approved months ago by the house, and an increase of three cents over the existing rate of 31 cents a pound. It also increased the rate on scoured wool to 37 cents a pound, as compared to 34 cents approved by the house and 31 cents in the present law.

SPECTACULAR BLAZE SWEEPS NEW YORK STUDIO THIS MORNING

Actors and Actresses Trapped in Building After Explosion Occurs — Many Actresses With Clothing Ablaze, Leap From Second Story Windows — Five Men and Four Women Are Victims.

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Nine persons—five men and four women—are known to be dead in a spectacular fire which swept the two story brick studios of the Manhattan Film Company today. Others, it was said, may still be trapped in the blazing building. The studio was used by the Pathe Company for making sound pictures.

Seventy five persons, at least, were in the building when an explosion, closely followed by a billowy wall of smoke and fire, cut off avenues of escape.

Girls Leap From Windows
Girls, attired in flimsy ballet costumes, rushed for exits. Finding all those on the main floor a mass of flames they dashed upstairs and many of them leaped from windows.

A score of injured were taken to various hospitals. Fire equipment from all parts of upper Manhattan was rushed to the scene and fire boats also poured water on the burning structure.

Fifteen thousand persons quickly gathered and watched the firemen battle the spectacular blaze. The police were forced to use their clubs to keep the crowds back of the fire lines.

The fire was started in a slight explosion of a film. So intense was the heat generated by the flames that firemen were unable to enter the building until almost half an hour after they had arrived on the scene.

Fire Spreads Rapidly
With amazing rapidity the flames, fed by quantities of film and the paper mache used in making sets, spread through the structure.

A revue company, comprising mostly girls, was preparing to rehearse a "talkie" comedy when the fire broke out. The flames spread so swiftly they became panic stricken. Men and women who were on the second floor were cut off from the exits and many of them rushed to windows and leaped to the street. Those on the first floor were blinded with smoke. Those who fought their way out were on the verge of collapse.

A few minutes after they were able to finally enter the building, firemen emerged carrying the bodies of two men and two women, and a third woman who was so badly burned she was killed. (Continued On Page Two)

Eighteen Die In Rail Wreck In Belgium

(International News Service)
NAMUR, Belgium, Dec. 10.—Eighteen persons are known to have lost their lives, and at least ten more are feared to have sustained fatal injuries in an appalling railroad accident near this station today. No Americans were involved in the accident.

The locomotive and two baggage cars of a fast train bound from Paris to Arlon jumped the track and overturned completely, while two passenger coaches were smashed to kindling when they piled up on top of the derailed cars.

Of the fifty persons injured, at least ten are expected to die.

Ten of the dead have been identified as French people. The remaining eight have not been identified.

O. Murray's companion is said to have confessed that they stole the automobile they were using last night in Columbus and that they had driven to Philadelphia. On their return trip Terry is quoted as saying they held up a gasoline station near Pittsburgh.

The station the youths held up last night is right across the state line from West Alexandria, Pa. State troopers pursued the bandits here, where they had to stop when a shot from the troopers penetrated the gasoline tank of their car. Murray tried to escape but was shot down in the gun battle which followed.

MINE TROUBLE IN ILLINOIS CAUSES USE OF MILITIA

at Taylorville last night and decided to stage a walkout today in response to the strike order of the National Miners Union.

Serious trouble at this mine developed late yesterday and was averted only by the action of Sheriff Dunbar and his deputies in refusing to let the miners leave the bottom until pickets of the National Miners gathered at the top had dispersed.

Work at Standstill.
TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Dec. 10.—With one mine bristling with machine guns and with state troopers guarding three other shafts, work in all four of the mines in Taylorville and vicinity was at a standstill today.

The guardsmen arrived at the scene of action early today and by 6 o'clock were in duty at the several shafts.

Strikers, all members of the National Miners Union which called the walkout, were urging members of the regular miners union to join the walkout. Many refused to go to work under the guns of national guardsmen.

Troopers Prepared.
As a result all mines in the Taylorville district were closed although there were persistent rumors that one mine was at work with a skeleton crew.

At Kincaid troopers were prepared for any emergency with machine guns in place.

At Langley—stronghold of the National Miners Union—trouble was narrowly averted when the militiamen dispersed a force of some 200 miners marching on the shaft. The men were headed by Freeman Thompson, an official of the N. M. U. and it was reported that Thompson and several leaders had been arrested.

Troopers are stopping all automobiles headed toward the Langley mine and forcing them to return to town.

The mines are the property of the Peabody Coal company.

SEEK AGREEMENT TO HAVE SENATE CONSIDER TAXES

fixed at 31 cents, compared to 23 cents in the house and 30 cents in existing law.

Debate Wool Rates.
Then the fight was abandoned for the vacation between the two sessions. At the end of the Vane case, debate was resumed on the remaining wool rates. The principal battle has centered around the woolen rags rate, with the senate committee's recommendation of 24 cents a pound attacked as certain to drive all cheap woolen clothing off the market.

A resume of the woolen items still in controversy, with the rates proposed expressed in "cents per pound," follows:

	Senate	House	Existing
Woolen rags	24	8	7 1/2
Top and ring waste	34	34	31
Noils carbonized	23	21	19
Thread-yarn waste	23	18	16
Shoddy	21	18	16

The woolen controversy may be ironed out by compromise with the other fights abandoned by fixing a new rate in the senate on woolen rags at 18 cents per pound. The senators from eastern manufacturing states have held out for a 12 cents a pound rate while the senators from western wool-producing states have insisted on a minimum of 20 cents a pound. There were indications both sides would agree on the 18-cent rate and end the woolen warfare.

Once the woolen schedule is finished the senate may plunge into its greatest tariff battle—over the much disputed sugar schedule. Administration leaders, however, were anxious to hold off that battle until all other schedules were completed, hence their immediate plans were somewhat hazy. In the meantime, it was generally agreed the bill will not be passed before Christmas and probably not much before the end of January.

Its age is a private matter

It is very difficult to discover, by its appearance, how old a Lincoln is. Lincoln believes in making automobiles so beautiful that they are always modern — so durable that they simply won't wear out. The age of a Lincoln is no one's concern—least of all its owner's. On the boulevards a Lincoln of last season and the newest model share honors equally with Lincolns years older than either.

So fine is this car that a year or so of use does not perceptibly detract from any of its splendid qualities. Lincoln owners are often men who can, and do, provide the best professional care for their cars. Sometimes such well-kept cars are available at very attractive prices from Lincoln dealers. The wisdom of investing in such a motor car is quite evident, and shrewd buyers are quick to take advantage of the opportunity.

A few such Lincolns are now to be seen on our floor. Every one is in perfect mechanical condition. We are always glad to demonstrate them to you without the slightest obligation. Drop in today.

Leonard Melone, the building superintendent, rushed in.

"I had just left Flinn's office and was at the edge of the balcony when a tremendous sheet of flame shot up from the stage floor below. It hurried me backward."

"I got into Flinn's office. The door was blocked. In fact, it was already burning."

"We broke the windows and lowered ourselves out on the ledge. As we went flames were licking through the other side of the office."

"We hung by our fingers from the ledge for dear life. Did you ever try a stunt like that?"

Melone displayed his hands. The fingers were cut and burned. His face was black and his hair and eyebrows singed.

"It seemed like hours we hung there. Flames were billowing out of the windows. They got my hair, you see. I was ready to let go and take my chances when I felt a ladder beneath me and somebody's arm on my back."

"I let go and guess I went unconscious."

"The others, I learned later, were taken down ladders also."

Lyle Bowen, a member of the "Black and White Serenaders" were flung down a spiral staircase in advance of the other musicians when the flash came.

"Suddenly" he said "the dark velvet backdrop of the stage shot up in flames. It must have all happened in a second."

"We rushed frantically back up to the second floor and made our way to windows, from which we were taken down ladders."

Flinn stated that there was no explosion, only that huge fatal puff of fire. Several of the studio crew bravely tried to fight it. Some grabbed buckets, others ran for the hose lines. But the fire ran through the building like tinder.

was taken to a hospital in a dying condition.

The acrid smoke almost overcame the firemen, and when they re-entered the structure they donned gas masks.

Some of the bodies carried from the building were burned almost beyond recognition.

Girls Panic Stricken
In filmset ballet costumes, girls leaped from the second floor windows—their clothes aflame. The girls had just donned their costumes in preparation for participation in Harry Delmar's "Black and White Review" which was to be "shot" as a sound picture, with Eddie Elkins and his orchestra of twelve furnishing the music.

There was a rain of blazing comets as the young women, in their costumes, jumped from the windows.

Elkins and his orchestra were on the studio stage when the blaze broke out. The ballet girls—approximately thirty—were in their dressing rooms waiting for Director Delmar to call them to the camera room.

It was then a mad black velvet drape in the rear of the studio burst into flames. If there was an explosion, as reported, it was slight. Those in the building had no warning of this tragedy, as they were about to stage a comedy.

Screams Of Fire
Screams of "Fire!" rent the place, precipitating a panic. The smoke and flames shot upward to the second floor where the other girls and studio force were preparing for work.

The studio crew seized fire buckets and tried, ineffectually, to quench the flames.

Driven by terror, men and women fought their way toward the exits and, finding them blocked, rushed upstairs and leaped from windows. One man carried the glass and sash with him. He was picked up, gibbering and semi-conscious.

One man managed to escape through the flames that enveloped the main floor exits, rushed to the fire box on the corner and smashed the glass, summoning the fire department.

Huge crowds gathered, as if by magic. Police used their clubs freely in keeping the throng back of the fire lines.

City Lighting Is Discussed

Council And Company Official Consider New City Contract

COMPANY MAY TAKE OVER CURE LIGHTING

Mayor William H. Gillespie, members of city council and Councilmen-elect Louis Genkinger and W. Stanley Treser, were in conference this morning at the office of the mayor with L. B. Round, manager of this district for the Pennsylvania Power company.

The meeting was the first conference held relative to the matter of a lighting contract between the city and the Pennsylvania Power company, also known as the Penn-Ohio system.

At this meeting, a proposal was made by the Power company, to take over the Washington street, Long avenue and Cherry street curb lighting systems maintained by the city at the present time, increase the candle power in use and maintain and keep in condition these systems, relieving the city of that work.

The increased cost to the city, under the proposal, is not to cost the city in excess of $3000 a year additional.

Members of council and the councilmen-elect came to no decision in the matter today, but the proposition will be given serious consideration, as it would centralize the lighting system of the city and make one source responsible for the proper lighting of the city.

This only affects the city lighting, as matters pertaining to private consumers is entirely in the hand of the Public Service commission.

Mercer Woman Pastor Wants State To Pay Damages To Car

Machine Struck Deer On Highway Near Mercer, Recently

HARRISBURG, Dec. 10.—The Rev. Mabel Hicks, of Mercer, has written Captain Wilson C. Price of the State Highway Patrol suggesting that the State in some manner compensate her for loss and damage she sustained when the car she was driving struck and killed a deer on a State highway. Captain Price informed the Mercer preacher that the Commonwealth does not consider itself responsible for damage to motor cars resulting from an act of omission or commission on the part of operators.

"We have received two requests that we reimburse persons who ran down migratory deer," said Captain Price today. "They indicate a wonderful optimism."

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

Music lovers of the city enjoyed a most delightful concert given in the First M. E. church to a capacity audience Monday evening when the Music club, with Mrs. Jessie Nelson Reed, as hostess, presented a program appropriate for the Yuletide season.

Richard E. Johns, led the audience in singing Christmas carols, and as usual his capable directing inspired those present to sing with the real Christmas spirit.

The first number on the program was played by Albert Taylor, organist of the First M. E. church. His work displayed splendid execution and artistic interpretation.

The Misses Helen Allen and Margaret Preston, both possessors of beautiful voices, sang a duet number in their usual pleasing manner.

Miss Mary Long proved herself a fine pianist, playing her numbers with splendid technique and style.

Two beautiful baritone numbers were rendered by Luther Brahm, who sang most effectively.

Miss Ruth Drescher, sang "There Were Shepherds" by Scott, and "Gesu Ramlino" in Italian, with an understanding of tone and depth of feeling.

A string quartet composed of Danny Casella, first violin; John Brinko, second violin; Margaret Hess, viola,
and Victor Rice, cello, played Andante
by Schubert.

A quartet composed of Miss Helen Allen, soprano; Margaret Preston, contralto; George Anthony, tenor and Luther Brahm, baritone, showed fine balance of parts and beauty of tone.

They were ably accompanied by Mrs.
Jessie N. Reed, at the piano and Albert Taylor at the organ, and the result was a lovely ensemble.

Much credit is due Mrs. Reed for the presentation of such a splendid program.

Mrs. J. Norman Martin will be in charge of the next program at The Castleton, January 13.

HONOR RECENT BRIDE AT SURPRISE SHOWER

Mrs. David Lewis, of Boyles avenue, a bride of recent date, was the honor guest at a shower Monday evening, when members of the Queen Esther class of the Third United Presbyterian church gathered in her home surprise fashion.

Covers were laid for 20 guests and a delicious lunch was served by Miss Alda Wasson and Miss Ethel Bixler. Games, music and social chat were enjoyed. Later, a basket of lovely gifts was presented the honor guest by Miss Pearl Colnot, president of the class.

Young Married People Meet.

The young married people of the Bethany Lutheran church met last evening in the church parlors for their regular meeting. The young people of the congregation were guests at the business meeting and it was decided to have the young unmarried people unite with the organization and change the name. A new name will be decided upon at the next meeting.

The temporary officers who had been chosen were made permanent officers, president is A. T. Jennings; vice president, Mrs. F. F. Thomas, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Paul Allison. It was decided to meet at the homes of the different members for the meetings instead of in the church and the January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. F. Thomas, of Beckford street.

Some novel games were enjoyed during the social hour and all members entered into them with zest. At the close of the evening the women produced well filled lunch boxes and served refreshments.

Suits-U.S. Club.
Mrs. Frances Shoaf of Etna street entertained the members of the Suits-U.S. club on Friday evening.

The evening was spent enjoyably with 500. Prizes were won by Mrs. Edith Eddy, Mrs. Frances Donley and Mrs. Mae McConaghy. Special guests were Mrs. Bessie O'Brien, Mrs. Thelma Dickey and Mrs. Margaret Biggs.

In two weeks, December 20, a meeting of the club will occur in the lecture room of the Pennsylvania Power company in the form of a bureau dinner for the members and their husbands. Committee in charge consists of Mrs. E. B. Ray and Mrs. William Back.

Honored at Dinner.
Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Stough entertained at a prettily appointed 6 o'clock dinner in their home on Winter avenue Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Park, who are leaving to reside in Mansfield, O.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Willis Park, Miss Barga Schulz and Miss Elizabeth Bruden.

Mr. and Mrs. Park were presented with a gift in behalf of the choir members.

Housewarming Party.
Twenty members of the World Wide Guild and Philathea class of the First Baptist church gathered at the new home of Mrs. Anna Boulden, Adams street, Monday night, for a housewarming party.

The evening was socially spent and everyone enjoyed himself greatly. A delicious lunch was served by a committee in charge of Mrs. Jane Pattison. A beautiful gift was presented Mrs. Boulden by those present.

Bertha Girls.
Bertha Girls of the First M. E. church met with Mrs. H. B. Ray, Hazel street, Monday evening. Twenty-five were present, and following the business meeting Mrs. H. C. Weaver gave an interesting talk on her trip to Jerusalem.

Later refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Alvin Carr.

Daniel-Mueller.
Miss Ella Marie Daniel of Springfield, Ill., and Karl H. Mueller of Milwaukee, Wis., were married this morning at 11 o'clock at the parsonage of St. John's Lutheran church, with Rev. F. E. Stough officiating with the ring ceremony. They were unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Mueller left immediately for Wisconsin.

PENNSYLVANIA'S SENATORIAL ISSUE

BY THE time this is printed in The News, Governor John S. Fisher, of the State of Pennsylvania, may have named the man to fill the senate vacancy as the second representative of the state, to fill the place that for three years was unoccupied as the battle over the seating of Senator Vare progressed.

It will be a matter of the utmost importance to not only Pennsylvania but the nation at large to see how many senators will be lined up with any such procedure as suggested by Senator Nye, of North Dakota, who recently declared that he would not vote to approve any senator named by Governor Fisher. Indeed, the Nye challenge amounts almost to a showdown on the constitution of the United States. It is a very great principle that is involved. A state is entitled to elect anyone it pleases, or, as in this case, the governor is entitled to fill the vacancy temporarily. Once seated, the senate may investigate to its heart's content and expel the elected or appointed member for cause—or for no cause whatever, for that matter. But to reject official credentials on presentation is a lawless proceeding, and for a senator to assume the attitude—as does Mr. Nye—that the senate may dictate to a governor and autocratically limit his scope of appointment to some one entirely satisfactory to it is as monstrous a doctrine as was ever preached.

Mr. Nye and his few followers—surely they must be very few—have raised a direct issue. Because of the importance of it—the subordination of a state's sovereignty to senatorial domination—the governor can not very well avoid meeting it and, in the language of the street, call the bluff.

And we do not believe there are many senators who will dare to stand and flaunt the constitution and the State of Pennsylvania.

WORLD COURT PROTOCOL SIGNED

By authorization of the president, the American Charge d'Affairs at Bern has signed the protocol making the United States a member of the World Court. The senate voted in favor of this step as long ago as January 27, 1926, with five reservations, four of which were acceptable to the members of the court. The fifth, dealing with advisory opinions, was rejected in lieu of any clear explanation of their purpose. Subsequently the Root formula met those objections. There remains, therefore, no reason whatever why this nation should not co-operate with others in an international judicial body which, as Secretary Stimson points out in his letter to the president, is becoming, partly by reason of the Kellogg Pact, of greater and greater importance. "Never," he says, "has there been a period in the world's history when there was such an imperative need for the development of international law by an international court."

No thoughtful observer can doubt the truth of this assertion. Nor is there any other available instrument than the World Court for achieving such a purpose. Its formation is in line with the settled policy of the United States. The Hague Tribunal was only a step in that direction. It is by its constitution not a real court, but simply a body of arbitrators. For that reason the American delegates were instructed in 1907 by President Roosevelt to work for its development into "a permanent tribunal composed of judges who are judicial officers and nothing else." Thus, as Mr. Stimson points out, the World Court is an American idea, though "the final movement which established it was inaugurated by the League of Nations." But not all its members are members also of the league; nor need we be.

The connection with the league is a bogey which the isolationists have long raised for the purpose of arousing popular prejudice. But with the acceptance of the fifth reservation in its modified form they have not a leg to stand on. Mr. Stimson's careful analysis of the powers and policy of the court makes it very clear that the advantages of our adherence to it are substantial and the alleged disadvantages mythical. The much-discussed peril of advisory opinions does not exist. Mr. Stimson says:

Unless a state has signed the so-called "optional clause," granting to the court compulsory jurisdiction over it in certain classes of legal disputes (which it is not proposed in the present protocol that the United States shall sign), the court can take jurisdiction only over cases which the parties themselves refer to it. It has no power to draw an unwilling suitor before it, even if that suitor be a signatory of the court, and render judgement in respect to such suitor. The court simply stands ready and available as a carefully chosen and experienced tribunal to which the nations of the world, if they choose, can refer their disputes for settlement, without the ordinary delays and difficulties which accompany the selection of arbitrators.

It would be difficult to state the case for the court more cogently. No plausible reason remains for any failure of the senate to ratify the action of the administration in signing the protocol. That would be dishonoring itself and the nation.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Prayer In Congress

The house met at 12 o'clock noon and was called to order by the speaker.

The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

We thank thee, O God, for the miracle of power and grace which bestows upon us rational life and mercy. Thy gentleness and tenderness are such that the bruised reed Thou wilt not break and the smoking flax Thou wilt not quench. Enter Thou into the deepest places of our natures and purify the unloved elements smoldering there. We pray that knowledge, love, and the fear of God may soften the harsh, sweeten the bitter, and broaden the narrow. Then shall we be able to speak and act with the godly spirit of obedience and charity, and the Christian ideal be allowed to express its sovereign perfection in that rapturous confession, "I delight to do Thy will, O God." Amen.

Any Memory After Death?
Will Sloan Or Ford Do It?
Will Coolidge Run? Ask Him.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1929, King Features Syn., Inc.)

Does anything interest us after we die? Does Clemenceau know that he saved his country?

It Nelson proud to point downward and show his tall monument to Emma Hamilton?

When the Duke of Marlborough refused to receive them at Blenheim because they were not married the sprightly Lady Hamilton said:

"Nelson shall have a monument, to which Blenheim shall be but a pigsty." Nelson has it.

Does Washington point to his fine monument by the Potomac, thus impressing Sally Fairfax, flying around near him. Or are the pessimists right, and is it true that:

The cloud-garbed towers, the gorgeous palaces,
The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve
And—leave not a rack behind.

In any case, T. P. Nelson, brave pilot of the postoffice air service, killed on duty, would have been proud of his funeral, could he have seen it.

While they lowered him into the earth, to drive his plane among the clouds of the earth no more, his flying friends of other days, including Lindbergh, flew over his grave, dropping flowers, and tears with the flowers.

We may know nothing beyond the hour of death. But even so, it is worth while to do something that will make good men remember us and regret our going.

Many brave men are left on earth, as brave as Lahire, Crillon, Duguesclerc or John L. Sullivan, himself, and brave sometimes in a better cause.

In the great storm sweeping British coasts, wind going 108 miles an hour, a French steamer, the Ornaïs, seemed doomed with its crew of 19. No boat could be launched and live. The coast guard could not send a line by rocket.

A young Cornishman named Laity said he thought he might live through the 100 yards of raging water, separating the ship stranded from land. He took a life line, swam through, saved the whole crew and himself.

It will be forgotten by the world, before next Monday but that does not matter. This earth, and the solar system will be gone and forgotten, in time. A few extra millions of years make little difference.

La Journee Industrielle, French business newspaper, says Henry Ford plans to manufacture a "baby-car," a small, cheap automobile, in Europe. The French editor says Ford will make the car "wholly" in Cologne, not bringing in parts for assembling, as is done in other American and European plants.

Mr. Ford said last Friday at Dearborn that he had bought some 30 acres for a plant, in the City of Cologne, but said nothing about a light car, to compete with small European cars.

He has always had a small, very cheap car, the look of his head. Many years ago he showed the writer an engine, so light he could lift it, made by him, to run a $250 car. That was when his minority stockholders refused to sell. Perhaps that little engine helped them to decide.

In any case, Mr. Sloan, of General Motors, might be first with a small car, here, and especially in Europe. There he has bought a controlling interest in two of the greatest companies in Germany and in France. He could start production on short notice.

Taxes in Europe, Britain especially, penalize severely cars embodying American ideas as to bore and horsepower.

Asked "Do you plan to run for the Senate next year?" Mr. Calvin Coolidge does that which he does most easily, says nothing.

Ask him, "Do you mean to run for President again in 1932 or 1936?" and he will be just as silent.

But that will not mean that he does not plan to run for President again. To be silent and watch, a program so easy for Mr. Coolidge, is to have 80 per cent advantage over the talkers.

Fifteen hundred Haitians made a mistake when they undertook to rush a small force of American marines. Five of them are in their graves, 20, in the hospital, the other 1475 thinking hard.

If Haiti is doing anything to us, confiscating the property of Americans, for instance, we must attend to that.

Otherwise, why not let them fight it out, among themselves, since the country, however unwisely, was given to them.

It would be embarrassing to have Russia send word to us, "Leave that little country alone. Haven't you read the Kellogg peace pact?"

Bids for the presidential yacht Mayflower are all rejected, because too low, including a bid from New York. That city felt it could afford to run the Mayflower, receiving distinguished guests, getting up little water parties, etc., even if Uncle Sam could not afford it.

Mayor Walker, if elected president, is a young gentleman who would probably say, if he felt that way, "Fix me up a yacht. Mr. Hoover doesn't cost too much. But I don't agree with him, and I'm president now." Stranger things have happened.

"WHAT IS A BOZO?"

The word "Bozo" is of recent vintage and was unknown prior to the advent of the automobile and improved highway. Readers of the Hints and Dints are asking about the word Bozo that they may read in this column with understanding. A bozo is a human, often good looking, who talks well, wears good clothes and from all outward appearance belongs to the race; but at times he acts like one of these ant eaters or an ape that climbs around in the trees. The bozo who comes along at high speed and crowds you into the fire truck when it is going at full speed roaring like the Graf-zep. For this reckless speed monger there are no signs in existence such as Safety Sam keeps waving for "Dangerous Curve," "Railroad Crossing—Stop, Look and Listen," "School Zone," "Detour—Run Slow." The city streets were especially made for his benefit and he has to do to clear traffic is to blow his horn.

He lives among civilized people, does about as he pleases and gets away with it. A bozo is just a bozo.

A Butler county hunter chased a buck for 54 hours before he got a shot at him. That's nothing. We know chaps who chase bucks all their lives and never get their hands on a very many of them. We also know a choice colony right here in New Castle who chase the buck all the time. Oh, row-dee-doo!

Bo Broadway

by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

By Central Press
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—"Zeke" Colvan, famous stage director for Old Doc Ziegfeld, was at one period of his career an actor—and a good one. In the theater he is the strictest disciplinarian on Broadway. His manner is frozen, his face frigid. Outside the showshop he is the most affable chap in New York. It must be that back of the proscenium he is acting a role, and acting it so well that he has the reputation of getting a lot of efficient work quickly and quietly done.

UNUSUAL ANNIVERSARY
Evelyn Herbert, successful prima donna soprano of such musicals as "The New Moon" and "My Maryland," and unique on Broadway as a prima donna in that she really knows music and reproduces it as something real and human—recently celebrated an unusual anniversary. It is one of which the public really knows little or nothing.

Miss Herbert some time ago made her debut in principal roles with the Chicago Opera company. It was there that she created the famous lead of "Mina" in De Koven's one grand opera, "Rip Van Winkle."

After that she lost her voice. She came to New York and got a job in the Casino chorus. When her voice no longer held a chorus position she quit the stage and visited friends on the St. Lawrence river.

One day the full realization burst upon her of just what a sorry trick fate had played, endowing her with all that talent and then depriving her of her voice; and in a frenzy she threw her self into the river.

A gardener working on the estate near Clayton, the scene of her attempt at suicide, dragged her from the stream. Later she saw that she had been more than foolish.

That fall she returned to New York. One afternoon she went into a little church and prayed that she'd get her voice back, and it was but a short time later that she recovered it completely and was offered a principal's role on Broadway. Now, at the pinnacle of success, she celebrates quietly, and in a manner unknown to anyone but herself, the annual recurrence of the date of her return from the St. Lawrence.

TRAGEDY
Paul Kelly is back on Broadway but is not playing. Dorothy Mackaye, when last heard from, was making her way to Tammany Town from the west coast, by boat, with a liberal stop at Havana.

Both were recently released from San Quentin, the famous penitentiary sentences after Kelly had killed Miss Mackaye's husband in a Hollywood brawl.

Kelly is unable to get a role in any play. Managers apparently are afraid of the effect upon audiences of having him in a cast.

Miss Mackaye was engaged by Arthur Hammerstein for a Chicago company of his "Sweet Adeline." But the project of a company for Chicago was dropped and so Miss Mackaye is not "working," to use the Broadway phrase.

Kelly voluntarily resigned from The Lambs and from his other clubs. There are rumors that he and Miss Mackaye will marry.

VAUDEVILLE WOES

The tragedy of vaudeville is becoming greater every day. Vaudeville appears to be done—if you are to believe the unemployed vaudeville artists who meet on Broadway. The talking pictures apparently are completing the ruin of a once prosperous amusement industry. If you won't believe it, go into any of the vaudeville hotels where the "acts" stop when they have the price. You can't quote your authorities on such a matter because no vaudeville performer desires that sort of publicity, and you would violate a confidence if you did, but there are facts in hand.

Good bookings this season. Once or twice a week they go out into some of the small houses in the suburbs, traveling by flivver to save railroad fare, and work for enough to pay a little something on their long deferred hotel bills, with perhaps some sandwiches and coffee on the side.

The Parent Problemby GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.*Be Worthy Of Child's Gratitude

There is a lot of foolish talk about not expecting children to be grateful to their parents. It is said, for instance, that since our children had nothing to say about their coming into the world they owe their parents nothing. Has not life been precious to them? Do they wish they had not been born? How absurd this doctrine is! What would happen if we were to apply it to a wider social range? Your city and mine each year fills a community chest for welfare work.

Now, suppose I, as a member of that community, say of the unfortunate families who are down and out and starving of the crippled children who are in desperate need of help, of the sick and suffering who must have hospital care if they are to live: "I did not invite them to live in my city. I didn't cause them to be sick or crippled. Why should I help to pay for their care?"

Suppose our children were to grow up with no feeling of obligation to us, their parents, of no doubt of gratitude. What moral values then are left for them? Nevertheless, it seems that many children never acquire such feeling; some are so sophisticated and so worldly wise that they frankly say they owe their parents nothing, and merely wait like hungry vultures to devour the savings and earnings which those parents finally may leave.

Now you and I know very well that we shall never be able to pay our debt of gratitude to our parents, however much we do for them. We shall make our payments by the sacrifices which we make for our own children and they, in turn, for their children. Our debt of love is never paid. We can merely pass it on and on. Unless we do, we are living a very narrow, selfish, sordid life. Unless our children also learn to do so, they will live no better.

As soon as our children are able to move about and learn to care for themselves, they as a part of the family, take on family obligations. Otherwise, they lose in character. If we allow our children to acquire responsibilities, if we do not do too much for them, nor make too great sacrifices for them, if we can keep ourselves from annoying them too much unnecessarily, but live happily with them; if we can understand them, grow up with them and being fair and just, they voluntarily will feel a debt of gratitude toward us.

The trouble is, we are prone to tell them they ought to honor, ought to respect us, ought to be grateful to us, and when they are not we condemn them. "You ought to be ashamed to treat me as you do when I have done so much for you. Some day you will think about these things and you will be sorry. But it will be too late then to think about them." Such is the way they are chastised and lectured to.

We get nowhere by such an attitude, but to drive our children from us, and to arouse in them ingratitude. If we want them to respect us, and feel right toward us, we must guide them skillfully in such a way as to make them acquire such a feeling, ourselves growing in the meantime, worthy of their gratitude.

not only should they abolish the gutters but they should bank the sides, much like a circular racing bowl, the idea being that the ball would be bound to end up at the head pin.

The News office team is a fertile field for the National Organizer of this new association. Most of us are not eligible to join, but have qualifications for office. Bruce Ewing wants to know more about the idea, and Harry Bell insists that he has been a member in spirit for many years.

Even the larger papers make errors, which shouldn't surprise you. An account in a Pittsburgh paper, describing a coming meeting of a railroad says "the New Castle Orchestra of the Pennsylvania Railroad will sing."

The limestone men had a banquet last night over at the Elks Club and if their ability to quarry limestone can be measured by the kind of a dinner they serve, they must be good. It was the annual feed of the Lake Erie Limestone Company, the Union Limestone Company and the New Castle Lime and Stone Company, and from the size of the portions on the plate they must have thought that everybody present had just done a day's work in the quarries.

Tomorrow night the Westminster College football team is going to do do tricks with roast turkey up in New Wilmington, and Andy McDonald has promised that no one will go away hungry.

There must be plenty of deer this season or else they are getting tamer. You can see more bucks strapped on to running boards of automobiles these days than you have seen for many years.

Mayor Gillespie didn't get a buck but he claims credit for shasing a big one out of the district in which he was shooting. The mayor shoed him into the open and then the other fellows missed him. A few feet closer and Mayor Bill could have put salt on his tail he claims, and thus have established a record for this season.

It's criminal court this week and next and the usual crop of innocent bootleggers and soiled doves will explain why they did it, if any. There is one thing to be said about the average bootlegger, he is regular. Very seldom does he get out of the standard alibi for his bootlegging, and it occurs to me that if some one would go up with a new idea, it might be the means of getting him some leniency.

There are few alibis and thus some duplication. The first is "holding it for private consumption." This alibi is good for any quantity up to three

Linens—Make Lovely Gifts

Hostesses who entertain "the family" this year will surely need new linens. A long table cloth, perhaps a set of lovely colored sheets and pillow cases for the guest room. Towels to dress up the bathroom, and blankets and comfortables to keep the guests warm and happy.

Whether she is a bride this season or a woman who has kept house for years, a gift of linens will be equally appreciated.

*-a brief word
to husbands*

If you but had the magic power, your Christmas gift this year would be simply—health and happiness. That would be the greatest gift of all.

To someone near and dear you can bring improved health and greater happiness with a General Electric Refrigerator.

The aim of perfect refrigeration is to keep food always at a temperature below 50 degrees, otherwise bacteria thrive, food which looks palatable becomes dangerous, health suffers. The General Electric is hermetically sealed.

Refrigerator keeps food constantly at a temperature well below 50 degrees.

And General Electric, as any friend who owns one will tell you, is quiet, trouble-free and guaranteed for service. It contains every worthwhile improvement known to the art of refrigeration. There are now more than 350,000 users and not one has ever spent a dollar for service or repairs.

See the various models today at our display rooms. Buy, if you wish, on the convenient time payment plan.

If you like really good music, tune in on the General Electric Hour, broadcast every Saturday evening.

Funeral Services For Late William Grist, Held At Lancaster Today

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 10. — Funeral services for the late William Walton Grist, representative of the 10th Pennsylvania congressional district and dean of Pennsylvania's representatives in the lower house of congress, were to be held at his home at 1:30 p. m. today.

In keeping with the quiet dignity and simplicity that characterized Grist in life, services at the home were to be of a typical Quaker character.

The body was to be taken to the Methodist Episcopal church at 2 p. m., for public services. The Rev. H. W. Harine, pastor, was to pronounce the invocation and read passages from the 30th Psalm.

The Rev. Dr. Geo. Richards, of the Reformed Theological church, was to read St. Paul's message at the public services. Extreme simplicity was to mark the services, no eulogy was to be read but the hymn, "Abide With Me," was to be played.

Ben G. Graham To Speak Before Club

Will Address Members Of Grove City Civic Club At Meeting Thursday

GROVE CITY, Dec. 10.—Ben G. Graham, associate superintendent of the Pittsburgh schools, will be the speaker at the December meeting of the Grove City Civic club which will be held in the Penn Grove hotel on the afternoon of December 12. Prof. Graham will speak on "Vocational Work."

CONFERENCE PLANNED.
Plans for a children's division conference to be held here January 14 were started last week at a meeting of the officers of District No. 1, Mercer County association. The adult conference was held recently in the United Presbyterian church of this city.

The program will be in charge of Mrs. W. F. Rossman superintendent of children's work in this district. She will be assisted by Miss Ada Morrow and district officers. A speaker is being sought who is an expert in children's work.

TO INSTALL SIGNALS.
The Bessemer railroad will start at once installing automatic flash signals at the Mill street crossing in this city. The action was taken with full consent and cooperation of the Grove City borough council.

FACULTY POST VACANT.
No one has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Grove City college faculty in the music department caused by the sudden death of Prof. Mehner.

WORK IS RESUMED.
Work on the construction of the new Carruthers building, corner of Broad and Pine streets was resumed today upon the arrival of a carload of steel for the framework.

OLD TIMER VISITS.
William B. McCune and daughter June of Chicago have returned to their home after spending two weeks with local friends. This is Mr. McCune's first trip to Grove City in 47 years.

KEITLER ON TRIP.
Dr. Weir Keitler of the Grove City college is in Harrisburg on a business trip.

Twelve thousand oysters were eaten on the opening day of the annual oyster feast at Colchester, England.

P. L. MAHAFFEY, Pittsburgh

Perry L. Mahaffey, of Pittsburgh, art director of The Pennsylvania Railroad News will be the chief speaker on the "Pennsylvania Railroad Night" program which the Booster club of Bessemer will observe on Wednesday, December 11 at 8 p. m. The program will be held at the high school auditorium.

Orchestral music for the evening's program will be furnished by the Erie and Ashtabula division orchestra. E. A. Fenton, supervising agent will introduce the speaker.

Myron A. Smith is in charge of arrangements and reports that plans are being made for an attendance of 650 or greater. Many will be in attendance from New Castle.

Mahaffey, known as one of the most exceptional artists, photographers, journalists and lecturers in the country and whose pictures have been exhibited throughout the country will have as his subject, "The Pennsylvania Railroad Through the Eyes of the Camera."

For his appearance he will have to assist him James H. Champion, also of Pittsburgh. He will use nearly 200 pictures to illustrate his lecture.

Theater Fire In Pittsburgh Sends Families To Street

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 10.—Firemen were forced to order all the families residing in one block of a northside street out of their homes here today when a stubborn fire resisted efforts to control it and threatened the entire block.

The fire, which started in the three story brick building housing the Gould Theatre spread to buildings on both sides of the theatre before it was brought under control.

Piles Go Quick

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Only an internal remedy can remove the cause. That's why salves and cutting fail. Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds, because it relieves this congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has given quick, safe and lasting relief to thousands of Pile Sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. McKee's Kid Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., and drugists everywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee.

"GLAD TO TELL ANYONE ABOUT NEW KONJOLA"

Lady Is Filled With Delight Over Experience With New And Different Medicine.

MRS. E. A. EASON

"I will be glad to tell anyone who asks or writes to me all about my wonderful experience with Konjola," said Mrs. E. A. Eason, 123 East Fourth street, Renovo, Pa. "My liver and kidneys were so badly out of order that my system was fairly saturated with accumulated poisons and impurities. I had bilious attacks, dizzy spells, headaches, and my feet and ankles were badly swollen. To walk was a torture, and I felt all in. I tried this and that, medicines and treatments, everything that was indicated or recommended and not one of them helped me a particle. "But what a change Konjola made! To make a long story short, every one of my health problems, ever been in my life. It is easy for me to understand why Konjola has more than a million friends. Konjola is sold in New Castle, Pa., at Love & Siegmund drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section."

Allen was in the aviation corps of the army stationed at Luke's Field, Hawaii.

Third Annual Product Show Occurs Friday

A Special Program Of Activities Has Been Arranged For Show In Westfield Grange

Judging of exhibits will begin at 2:00 p. m., at the third annual Farm Products Show, at Westfield Grange hall, Friday, December 13.

An interesting program has been arranged for 8 o'clock Friday evening, also, with David A. Byler, chairman, in charge. It is expected that the annual show will draw a large crowd of local people.

Entries for the show will be open to all persons in Westfield community. No entry fee will be charged, and awards of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place ribbons will be made.

The committee in charge consists of J. N. Fullerton, Guy M. Fullerton and F. W. Martin. According to rules made by this committee, exhibitors will be limited to one entry in each class, and all exhibits must be in place by 1:00 p. m., December 13th.

Henry Ehle is superintendent of the grain exhibits; John McKee, vegetables; Mrs. J. A. Weller, household arts; James Kelso, fruits; George Raney, eggs, honey, milk and butter; Miss May Kelso, household science; Mrs. H. E. Emery, canned goods; Milton Cameron, poultry.

An egg grading demonstration by H. H. Kaufman and the presentation of a special prize, are other features of the program. A lunch will be served by the Westfield Grange.

When at last our men of great ability are willing to do public work for almost nothing we shall have ideal policemen.

Dogs and cats suffer from attacks of as many as 475 species of insect parasites.

HUNTERS TELL OF FIGHT WITH BEAR

Bruin Heads For Woods After Brief Attack Against New Castle Men

Four New Castle men, Frank James and E. Scheffner of Milton street, John Clark of Chestnut street and John Parkson of the Princeton road, returned today from a hunting trip in Bedford county. One of their experiences was a most unexpected meeting with a bear.

With them they brought a ten and a four-point buck. They report having a most enjoyable trip and tell a most vivid story with Old Bruin.

One day they were carrying some game out of the woods carrying their unloaded rifles by their sides, when all of a sudden a huge bear emerged from behind some brush. The bear no doubt was hungry and was set on securing their game for food.

For a while they fought the animal off which had become enraged by their striking it, but after a short time it turned and headed for the woods. John Clark got the worst of the encounter as his trousers were completely torn off.

While on their trip the men established headquarters at the home of Mr. James' sister, who lives in Bedford county. While away he also visited his mother at Cumberland, Md.

How to Get
15 Per Cent Interest

The Story is This:—

Mrs. A. buys an article for $75.00 on "installments" payable monthly, because it is so "easy" to pay that way, having a year to pay for it.

Mrs. B. prefers to pay cash and instead of buying now opens an account at the DOLLAR SAVINGS ASSOCIATION, paying $1.50 per week for 50 weeks and gets interest on her money.

She then takes her check which she gets at the end of the 50 weeks and makes her purchase, and because she pays cash she gets a discount of $7.50.

This saving plus the interest on her savings nets her over 15% interest.

Result—Thrifty Mrs. B. has $8.35 extra to spend while Mrs. A. has none.

Thrifty folks save their money with us and get 5% interest on their money.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Peter's Adventures

PETER STEPS RIGHT INTO TROUBLE

Peter, glancing at Holy Man of Beetle Land, thought that he looked decidedly ugly for a holy man, and privately decided that he wasn't really praying at all, but just holding his claws in that position because he wanted to. But then the boy thought of what Biffer had told him, and concluded to keep his opinions to himself. He looked back after they had gone some distance and saw that Holy Man was still standing in the same position that they had first seen him.

Biffer was too excited to walk sedately and kept running ahead of Peter and then back again to tell the boy something that he had seen. But the path was a winding one and at last Biffer turned around a corner and was lost entirely to view. The boy hurried after and overtook him before long, but thought for a moment that the beetle had gone mad. Biffer was jumping up and down and clapping his claws and chanting something that sounded like, "Ya, ya, ya; he, he, he; hy, hy, hy." When he saw Peter he beckoned.

Just as Peter reached the little beetle he felt a sharp pain in his foot, and suddenly it seemed as if something had hold of him and was trying to pull him into the ground. He clutched a clump of grass that grew high above his head and hung on with all his might while he screamed for aid.

"Help me, Biffer, quickly. I am afraid I am going to lose my foot. Something is dragging me into a hole and I don't know what it is."

Why Fat Men
Stay Fat

"The trouble with me, and I guess this applies to 99% of the men who are putting on weight, I didn't have the energy or 'pep' to keep it off. Lost all interest in any healthy activity and just lazed around accumulating the old pounds until I got that 'Kruschen feeling'."

Start taking Kruschen Salts—that's the common-sense way to reduce—but don't take them with the idea that they possess reducing qualities in themselves.

This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

As a result instead of planting yourself in an easy chair every free moment and letting flabby fat accumulate you feel an urge for activity that keeps you moving around doing the things you've always wanted to do and needed to do to keep you in good condition.

Then watch the pounds slide off! Kruschen Salts are the up-to-date Fountain of Youth. Take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot or cold water tomorrow morning and every morning and if they don't change your whole idea about reducing, go back and get the small price paid for them. Get an 85-cent bottle of Kruschen Salts—lasts 4 weeks—at Eckers of New Castle, Inc., or any progressive drug-gut anywhere in the world.

It's the Little Daily Dose that does it.

Biffer rushed up at his cry and knew in an instant what had happened.

"Hey, there, Tiger, leave go of that foot," he cried bending down and shouting into what Peter saw plainly for the first time was indeed a hole in the ground. "I am Biffer the Gun-Beetle, and you have trapped a friend of mine. If you don't let him go I will smother you with a gas attack."

Whatever it was who had grabbed the boy evidently knew that Biffer would make good his threat, for it let go of him so quickly that he was taken off his guard and fell head over heels into the soft, cool grass clump that he had been hanging on to.

Tries To End His Life With Revolver

BRIDGEWATER, Dec. 10.—Frank Cable, 29, attempted to take his own life by firing a bullet from a .32 calibre revolver into his left breast according to Chief of Police Dan M. Baker.

The lead slug entered the breast and passed diagonally through coming out on his left side. He was found on the porch by members of the family who called a doctor. When the physician arrived however Cable had disappeared. Chief of Police Baker was called. He found Cable and forced him to have the wound dressed.

Ran In Front Of
Auto And Is Killed

AMBRIDGE, Dec. 10.—Darting from the curb into the path of an automobile as he ran to overtake playmate, Andrew Laszka, 4, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leszka, 914 Lenz avenue was instantly killed.

Francis K. Hafez of the Tuscarawas road, Beaver, driver of the car was released under his own recognizance upon the order of Coroner Harry C. McCarter.

Start Taking Of Testimony Today In Accorsi Case

Jury Completed, Testimony
Will Be Taken Today In Killing Of State
Trooper

JUDGE McLAUGHRY
IS PRESIDING

By FRED K. McILVAINE
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 10. — The trial of Salvatore Accorsi, 38, a former miner of Cheswick, Pa., who is charged with the murder of State Trooper John J. Downey on August 22, 1927, today went into its second session here in criminal court with the scene set for the taking testimony.

It required an overtime session of court yesterday for the selection of the eleven men and one woman jurors who will decide the guilt or innocence of the defendant. A second panel of jurors had to be called before the eleventh and twelfth jurors were agreed upon by the commonwealth and the defense and the final juror was the ninety-fifth to undergo the interrogation of the attorneys.

Jury is Completed.
The completed jury is: Joseph Costello, a skilled laborer, of Clairton; John S. Rosencrance, skilled laborer, Swissvale; Charles B. Maguire, skilled laborer, Whitaker; Mrs. Florence Snyder, housewife, Pittsburgh; George Wilson, hot mill heater, Pittsburgh; William Logsdon, car inspector, Pittsburgh; Fred J. Weidenhof, carpenter, Pittsburgh; Jacob Fugh, farmer, O'Hara township; Leroy Crawford, railroad engineer, Duquesne; Robert Sandberg, farmer, Duquesne; Sam Rumbaugh, Sr., salesman, Pittsburgh; and J. P. Werneth, real estate agent, Pittsburgh.

Defense attorneys Jacon Margolis,

Maurice Schneirov and John M. Henry had exhausted all but one of the 20 peremptory challenges permitted them when the final juror took his seat. Assistant District Attorney George F. P. Langfitt and J. E. Kalson had used 18.

Is Termined Re-Echo.
The Accorsi trial is a re-echo of the famous Sacco-Vanzetti and the climax of a two year search by Sergeant John Tomek, of the Pennsylvania State Police. Downey died almost immediately that August day in 1927 from the effects of three bullet wounds received when he, with 19 other members of the state police troop from Greensburg were dispersing a Sacco-Vanzetti protest meeting at Acmetonia, a nearby mining village.

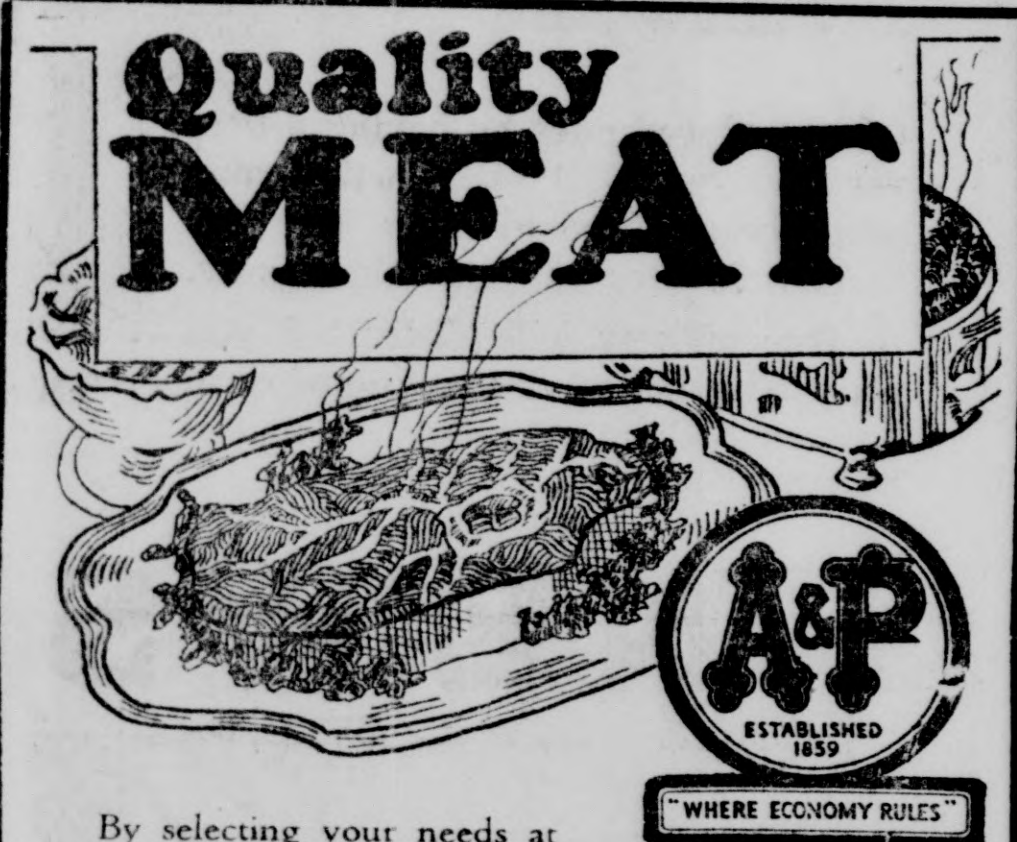

Tomek was assigned to the case and with the unwritten order of the state police to "get your man," stayed in the search until Accorsi was arrested in Staten Island, N. Y., early this year. Accorsi, pleading not guilty, refused to waive extradition but lost the bitter legal battle which followed and was ordered returned to Pittsburgh in the custody of Tomek. He has been held in jail here until his trial this week.

Judge McLaughry Presiding.
Visiting Judge J. A. McLaughry, of Mercer county, is hearing the case. When the trial resumes this morning, Accorsi's wife and their three small children are expected to be among the intensely interested spectators of the dramatic trial. The children, Carolina, 9 years of age, Hernando, 17 months, and Luigi, 6 months of age, are being brought here from Staten Island to be near their father during the trial.

Still, the "criminal element" would include almost everybody if Congress should pass every law suggested by anybody.

Jury Presents Speedy Verdict

Case Is Tried And Settled Within Period Of 90 Minutes

ELLPORT WOMAN PLEADS "GUILTY"

Justice borrowed the wings of Mercury Monday afternoon in court room No. 2 when the case of James Barker came to trial. Inside of 90 minutes from the time the trial started the jury was in with a verdict of guilty.

The charge was desertion and non-support of his wife, Mrs. Mattie Barker, and his son James Edgar Barker, aged 18 months. Ordinarily a charge of desertion and non-support is heard by the court without a jury. This however, was a criminal charge and more serious in its portent.

Mrs. Mattie Barker, the plaintiff, took the stand in her own behalf and testified that she had married Barker on October 18, 1927, and that 11 days after her son was born in June, 1928, her husband had deserted her. She said that he had paid her $5 in 18 months for the support of her child, and that he was working as a screw boy in the Shenango mill.

She said that she worked as a dishwasher in a restaurant, getting $8 per week of which she paid $3 per week to a younger sister for taking care of the baby. The sister, Mary Wenn, corroborated the testimony of Mrs. Barker as to the desertion.

Testifying in his own defense James Barker said that the reason he did not support his wife and the boy was that the boy was not his. This was indignantly denied upon the stand by Mrs. Barker. Barker's counsel attempted to bring in testimony tending to prove illegitimacy but Judge Chambers ruled that inasmuch as Barker had lived with his wife as long as he did, that any claim of illegitimacy would have to be handled in an action for annulment of marriage, and that in this case the testimony was irrelevant.

In pleading the case to the jury Assistant District Attorney Samuel L. Clark had the mother hold up the baby for the jury to compare the profile with that of James Barker. Apparently the jury believed he was the father, for the verdict of guilty was returned in about 20 minutes.

Pleads Guilty.

At the opening of court Monday afternoon Theodore Telpash of Ellport pleaded guilty to a charge of possessing liquor. She is the woman whose place was raided some weeks ago by Constables Ellison and Mescal and two state officers and who nearly finished Constable James Ellison with a butcher knife.

Following her plea the case of Stanley and Minnie Jachurecki, charged with assault and battery preferred by John Klyczko was put on trial. It was still on at the conclusion of court. In No. 2 court room the second case to come up was that against Frances Barron for possession of liquor.

Postpone Trial Of Alfred Forney In Pittsburgh Court

District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner Sprains His Ankle; Confined To His Home

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 10.—The trial of Alfred W. Forney, so-called slot machine king, was indefinitely postponed today because of the absence of District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner, who is confined to his home in Tarentum with a sprained ankle.

The postponement was decided upon after a conference between Judge H. H. Rowand, Assistant District Attorney John E. Haggerty and Defense Attorney Hiram D. Hirsch. Forney is charged with maintaining gambling devices and being a common gambler. He is at liberty under $6,000 bond.

Gardner suffered a sprained ankle when he slipped on the floor at his home. He may be confined to his home for six weeks, it was said at his office today.

Alleged Driving While Intoxicated

J. A. Moore, charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was placed on trial before Judge Hildebrand in court this forenoon. W. H. Dunlap testified that he was coming out of Adams street to East Washington and had made a left hand turn when Moore car which were ahead of him going toward Cascade Park and sideswiped the Dunlap car. Moore denies that he was intoxicated.

May Take Up Murder Case On Wednesday

It is probable that the case of the commonwealth against Steve Garlich, charged with the murder of George Markota at Carbon, will be taken up at county court tomorrow.

One of the witnesses, who was in Ohio, has returned and it is expected that the other will be here by tomorrow. The case had to be continued on Monday on account of the absence of the witnesses.

Rev. Ingram To Show His Side Of Case At Injunction Hearing

Rev. W. L. Ingram, against whom a temporary injunction was granted by the court yesterday, enjoining him from officiating as pastor of St. Paul's Baptist church, expects to present his side of the case fully when the hearing is held. This will not be until after the present session of court. Rev. Ingram desires that his friends withhold their judgment until he has been able to show his side of the case at the hearing.

Found Not Guilty; Costs Are Divided

Divergence Of Testimony As To Who Was Responsible For Fight

In the case of John Klyczko against Stanley and Minnie Zacharenski, for assault and battery, which was tried before Judge Hildebrand in court this morning, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty and divided the costs equally between the prosecutor and the defendants. The case was one growing out of a dispute which ended in a fight. There was considerable divergence of testimony as to who was to blame for starting the fight, each side trying to blame the other.

Reports from the U. S. Forest Service indicate that more than 650,000 acres of National Forest Land has been destroyed by fire in the territory west of the Mississippi river.

Reporters sent to jail for refusing to talk would get no sympathy either, if it was their theft of public property they refused to talk about.

Vets Bureau Head Will Speak Tonight

Pensions For World War Veterans Will Be Subject Discussed By Mike Shortley

M. J. Shortley, regional manager of the U. S. Veterans Bureau at Pittsburgh will address members of the Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion at their meeting in the Legion home this evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Shortley will discuss the question of pensions for soldiers of the late war which is a pertinent question at the present time, there being a great number of ex-service men of the World war who are disabled and who cannot receive compensation because they are unable to trace their present disability to service causes.

It is expected that the meeting will be largely attended by members of the post.

Federal Grand Jury Throws Out Case Of Famous "Wet" Dinner

Washington Grand Jury Decides That Due To Lack Of Evidence Case Be Dismissed

Senator Brookhart Failed To Substantiate His Charges Of Liquor Pouring

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Charges of Senator Brookhart (R) of Iowa, that liquor was consumed at a dinner given at the Hotel Willard three years ago by Walter J. Fahy of New York were thrown out Monday by the federal grand jury.

"Lack of evidence and the lapse of time made it impracticable" to further consider the charges, the jury reported. The report was exceptionally brief and did not refer to Brookhart's testimony in its summary dismissal of the case.

The grand jury's inquiry grew out of a speech made in the senate by Brookhart in which he reminded Senator Smoot (R) of Utah, that they had attended a dinner here three years ago at which liquor was served. Smoot denied it at the time but Brookhart insisted that Fahy, a New York broker, had given a dinner to "new senators" at which silver flasks were distributed as favors. Brookhart said the flasks were hidden under a table but that all guests were invited to take one. He couldn't say whether senators "took the flasks" but he did "notice Wall Street boys going after them."

Says Whiskey Poured. In the course of the dinner Brookhart added, Edward E. Loomis, president of the Lehigh Valley railroad and a partner of J. P. Morgan and Company, poured a drink of red liquid from one of the flasks. Brookhart said he knew it was whiskey by its odor and that the liquor was so strong Loomis had to pour water into it before he drank it. He also named former Senator Walter E. Edge of New Jersey, Otto H. Kahn, the New York capitalist and the late Senator Gooding (R) of Idaho as also being present.

Brookhart appeared before the grand jury and discussed the dinner. As a result of his testimony the grand jury also called Loomis. Fahy was not summoned since his appearance would have granted him immunity.

NEW CASTLE MEN HURT WHEN TRUCK AND CAR COLLIDE

Smash-up Occurs At Newport When Truck Turns Off Road; Cars Damaged

Two brothers, Harvey E. Allison and John Allison of 237 West Grant avenue, this city, narrowly escaped serious injury and possible death when the car in which they were enroute to Pittsburgh Monday morning struck a moving truck, near Newport.

It is said that Albert Andre, driver of the truck swerved left while directly in front of the Allison car without giving the slightest warning of doing so. Another parked car was also damaged when the crash occurred. Andre is from Wampum. The Allison car was badly wrecked.

Harvey Allison, who was driving their car sustained slight cuts and bruises of the face and suffered an injured side. John Allison who was thrown clear of the car suffered lacerations of the face and head and an injured arm.

A coincidence is the fact that five minutes after the accident occurred another Allison brother, Earl, happened along and stopped when he saw the smashup, to render any assistance he thought might be necessary. Earl was shocked when he found his own brothers.

The two are resting comfortably at their home although suffering from shock. Andre, who was in the truck, was not injured.

Patrick Sullivan Is New Senator From Wyoming

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Patrick J. Sullivan, Wyoming millionaire, was sworn in Monday as that state's junior senator to succeed the late Senator Francis E. Warren.

Sullivan's credentials were ordered sent to the senate elections committee for an investigation into the power of Governor Emerson of that state to make the appointment. Senator Walsh (D) of Montana, raised the issue just before the oath was administered to Sullivan but added he believed the governor had ample power.

Pays Fine Of $106 For Killing Doe

SHARPSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 10.—John Gill Jr., arraigned before Justice J. H. Steward on a charge of killing a doe deer was assessed a fine and costs totaling $106.20. The deer was killed in Pymatuning township and was concealed for several days. County Game Protector Frank D. Fair of Sharon however found where it had been hidden and placed Gill under arrest.

The deer was one of five which have been staying in the Pymatuning district for several months. The illegal killing of the animal was the first violation of the kind in Mercer county in many years as the county is not in the big game district.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

BOREDOM

Boredom is a complaint frequently heard. We crave entertainment and are bored when we don't get it. We avoid some people because we fear we shall be bored. Justly we are bored because we haven't enough to do or because what we do is not sufficiently interesting. For all of these reactions we can blame only ourselves. Almost everything is interesting if we approach it in the right frame of mind. If we look upon any activity, as drudgery, as incapable of producing interest, as just something to be got through with, we shall be bored much of the time. But if we approach every human being with curiosity and see adventure in every job we can pack life full of interest whether we live in the largest city in the world or a cross-roads village.

AS TO BEING MODERN

Some after dinner speaker, seeking to be smart, says the trouble with boys today is that too many woodsheds have been turned into garages. He says the best board of education is a shingle. Most of us laugh sympathetically when someone compares youthful antics of today with the bicycle product of the gay nineties. Indeed there is a feeling on the part of many that old days, old customs were better. We shy away from modern inventions and improvements as though they had brought something evil or at least of doubtful value into the world. There is no basis for such opinion. Modern life has given us vastly more to do with. If we have sense enough to take advantage of modern improvements, we should make a better, finer job of living than men have ever made in human history.

Let's not be afraid of inventions, of modern ideas, of a changed world, but let's study ourselves and the new world in order to do a vastly better job with our improved facilities.

MACHINES

Students of mankind since John Ruskin have voiced the fear of machines. They have thought that because man could get a hundred times more done in an hour with modern machines than he could do by hand in the old days, he was losing something out of his life, losing his soul. It is true that a man who does nothing for eight hours but screw a nut on a bolt, and does that month in and month out, may not be learning very much in the way of improved methods of workmanship. On the other hand, with that kind of a job, his mind is released. His imagination is free. He is in position to do sound and productive thinking if he is intelligent enough. The job isn't killing him or necessarily hurting him. If he loses out in his intellectual development it is for reasons that lie deeper than his nut-bolt job.

Bedridden Six Months

I was all run down with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart often getting black in the face and thought to be dying, and for six months I was confined to my bed. A relative of mine who had been troubled with female weakness and nervous prostration and had been cured by Thompson's Barosma, recommended it to me. I began to take the Barosma at once and was not only cured of nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart, but began to gain back my flesh, and from that time on until now have been perfectly well, doing my own housework.—Mrs. Ely M. Marsh, Titusville, Pa.

When constipation is present Golden Lax Tablets (25 and 50 cents) should always be taken. Thompson's Barosma $1.00 for sale at all drug stores.

Stinedurf, Ruth Buchanan, Audrey Bilger and June Stinedurf. Mr. and Mrs. Stinedurf are planning to move the last of the week to Slippy Rock where Mr. Stinedurf is engaged in the blacksmith business.

Christmas Gifts of Useful Furniture

—Let your furniture gift bring its welcome with the name "Frew's" on the package. For that is a guarantee of quality to the person who receives it... a testimony to your own good taste in selecting it. Just now, with hosts of new furniture styles coming in, Frew's is an especially delightful place to shop... an inviting place to make a Christmas list.

The Living Room —welcomes gift furniture

—particularly a SUITE from Frew's!

—Suites of Leshier mohair... of mohair with colorful trieze cushions... of tapestry, and all the other favored upholstery materials... invite a consideration of the comfort of your living-room, or living-room of any person you'd especially like to please. Among our newest designs is a three-piece suite of mohair, with one of the chairs in button-back style, at $269.00.

Occasional furniture —makes a thoughtful gift

—Even the friend who "has everything" would be flattered by your recollection of her love for Early American furniture... or her admiration of a Queen Anne piece. We offer occasional furniture in authentic designs of almost any period.

—OCCASIONAL TABLES, in tilt-top, butterfly, and octagonal styles, finished with walnut or mahogany. $26.50 up.

—OCCASIONAL CHAIRS, in a variety of individual types, and finishes, $12.50 up.

—HUMIDORS and smoking stands, in walnut, mahogany, and distinctive lacquer finishes... some with marble tops. $9.75 to $35.00.

—GATELEG TABLES, in walnut or mahogany, can be pressed into service for dining in small homes and apartments. Distinctively colonial in design. $19.75 to $75.00.

—TELEPHONE SETS, of walnut or mahogany, or in colored lacquer finish with colorful decorations, include telephone stand and matching chair or stool. $10.50 to $35.00.

—SEWING CABINETS of the Priscilla type, may be had in walnut or mahogany, or in decorative lacquer effects. $12.75 up.

—FIRESIDE BENCHES, of walnut, have tie-on cushions of subdued tapestry and trieze, to win the acclaim of radio enthusiasts. $19.75.

—MAGAZINE HOLDERS in maple, are decorated in classic effects... something new and entirely different. $7.50 up.

Senate Lobby Reports Scores Joseph Grundy

Senate Lobby Committee Report Attacks Joseph Grundy For His Testimony

Grundy Holds Commanding Place Among Lobbyists Of Washington Revealed

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Joseph R. Grundy, the "granddaddy of all lobbyists," sought to add at least $1,186,000,000 and possibly "double that amount" to the cost of living through his advocacy of higher tariff duties, the senate lobby investigating committee reported today in a special report.

The committee declared Grundy held an "extraordinary and commanding place among the lobbyists in the national capital" and that his "chief contribution to political life has consisted of the raising of funds for political campaigns." The report drew no conclusion but merely cited Grundy's testimony at the inquiry, including his reference to "backward states" in the south and west, represented by senators opposing the present tariff bill.

Forced to Backtrack.
The report stated that Grundy was forced to withdraw some of his charges against the "backward states." The committee said "figures from the treasury" refuted his charge that the "backward states" did not pay enough taxes to cover the cost of collection. "He was further obliged to admit that there was no truth in the statement that states like Pennsylvania support what he denominated the 'backward states,'" the report added.

Lengthy Discussion
The most interesting phase of the report was the committee's lengthy discussion of his activities as a lobbyist. It read:

"Mr. Grundy has been almost continuously in Washington since the House of Representatives began its inquiries looking to the Franklin of the tariff bill now before the Senate about Jan. 1, of the present year. Interesting himself in increases in the tariff rates. This self-assumed task was by no means novel. He had come to Washington on the occasion of the pendency of every tariff bill considered by Congress since 1896, engaging in similar activity.

"Lobbying seems to be hereditary in his family, for he told the committee that when the McKinley bill of 1890 was in process of building his father attended a meeting in a room in the old Ebbitt Hotel when a few of the leaders of the dominant party of that day, in conjunction with other gentlemen interested in the measure, agreed upon it—a method of framing tariff legislation he approved and commended.

ALLEGED SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER FINED

Answering a call to the home of Fred Remley, 1029 East Washington street, to investigate an alleged suspicious character that has been annoying the Remley family and others, Officers McKee and Llewellyn came upon Charles Bulley, who claimed to be a resident of this city, near the district being annoyed. He was under the influence of liquor, according to the police, when arrested and found to resemble the description of the man wanted. He was assessed a fine of $5 when taken before Mayor William H. Gillespie.

You may break, you may shatter stock markets if you will, but folks will keep up with the Joneses still.

Marines Bring Quiet To Haiti

No Further Disorders Are Reported—Government In Control

PRESIDENT BLAMES POLITICAL ENEMIES

(International News Service) PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti, Dec. 10.—A reassuring quiet prevailed throughout this republic today.

There have been no disorders of any kind for three days. Threatened demonstrations by strikers scheduled yesterday failed to materialize and the government continues in complete control of the situation.

Marines Give Security
The presence of U. S. Marines, augmented by fresh arrivals at Janel and the expectation that hundreds more will soon be here to aid in enforcing martial law have resulted in a feeling of stability among residents in this and other cities of the republic.

President Borno yesterday broke the silence he maintained during the five days of rioting and threats of serious outbreaks by issuing an official proclamation in which he blamed political adversaries with spreading propaganda which led to the disorders.

Most of the student strikers and those workers struck have returned to their schools and positions.

Brother-Sister Given Sentences In Liquor Case

Towanda Merchant With Less Than Half Pint Given Three Years In Jail

(International News Service) TOWANDA, Pa., Dec. 10.—Testimony of Federal Prohibition Agents that their sole physical evidence consisted of less than a half pint of moonshine whiskey, found in the general store of George Vogle, today resulted in the sentencing of Vogle to serve a term of three years in the Bradford county jail and to pay a fine of $5,000 and costs.

Judge Charles M. Culber, presiding judge, also sentenced Vogle's sister, Ruby Vogle, to serve one year in the same jail and to pay a $100 fine for violation of the prohibition law.

Another brother and sister, Fred and Caroline Vogle, likewise convicted on a liquor law violation charge, are awaiting sentence pending an appeal for a new trial.

Testimony of the agents at the trial was to the effect that although they found less than a half pint bottle of whiskey concealed in the wall of Vogle's store, a search revealed thirteen five gallon cans in the establishment which apparently had contained intoxicants.

Local Boy Sings At Rotary Club

Youngstown Flying Field Man Is Principal Speaker On Monday's Program

Lieutenant C. J. Humaker of the Youngstown flying field delivered a most interesting address before the New Castle Rotary Club Monday at noon. His subject was "The Past Present and Future of Aviation."

As a feature of the meeting, Andrew DiLorenzo, first tenor in the boys' choir of St. Mary's church here, sang several numbers for the club. He responded to the hearty applause with an encore number.

The appearance of DiLorenzo was made possible through the courtesy of Father F. S. Clifford, assistant pastor at St. Mary's.

Dancing Drudge May Soon Lighten Kitchen Duties

(International News Service) BERLIN, Dec. 10.—Rudolph Von Labon, the famous German dancing master, wishing to make life more pleasant for the housewife, is advocating a housework dance.

Von Labon contends that the German Hausfrau can use her duster and vacuum cleaner to the rhythm of his new step. He even goes so far as to state that scrubbing, probably the most unromantic of household duties can be turned into a delightful dance.

Receiving Sets Soon A Part Of Policeman's Kit

By RALPH G. PLATT

International News Service Staff Correspondent

CLEVELAND, Dec. 10.—To say that police radio system is being received cordially and enthusiastically by police officials throughout the country is putting it lightly when the latest plan and expectation of police heads here is considered.

Chief of Police Jacob Graul has announced that it is his earnest desire to see every one of his 1500 policemen equipped with a miniature, efficiently operating radio receiving set that may be carried on the officer's person.

The announcement seemed so incredulous that it was some minutes before newspapermen would accept it except as a joke. Graul, however, was intensely sincere in his declaration and went so far as to say that experiments are being carried out at present along those lines.

Tentative Plans
According to tentative plans, the flashing of a tiny electric light would inform the officer that he should tune in. The batteries and the set itself would be secreted in the pockets of the officer's uniform.

With the flashing of the light, the officer would take a headphone from his pocket and put it to his ear. Stolen autos, missing persons and flashes on all major crimes would be broadcast to him.

Graul explained that the patrolmen walking beats and detectives out on details and assignments now are required to call their headquarters every fifteen minutes. With the installation of the individual radio sets this practice, which expends much time and energy, will be abolished.

Sample Sets
Sample sets of the innovation are under construction now Graul said, and extensive experimentation will be conducted to make the plan successful if at all possible.

The police radio system of ferretting out crime and criminals has worked so successfully here since it was installed three months ago, that work is now in progress to equip 50 police cars with receiving sets.

THE ARSONIST

—a Discouraged Criminal

More and more is the arsonist becoming a discouraged criminal. So relentless is the search—so greatly improved are the methods of detecting the evil deeds of this foe to all society—that fires started either for revenge or unlawful gain, are steadily decreasing in number.

Through the Arson Department of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the Stock Fire Insurance companies work day and night to apprehend the arsonist.

The Arson Squad—composed of a large number of specially trained men—operates quietly and effectively with the police and fire departments and with fire marshals, to guard the public against incendiarism.

The pitiable but dangerous pyromaniac, with his abnormal mind, also is being curbed.

Model Arson Laws

Legislators in more than half our states have amended their laws to more effectively check the operations of criminals who endanger the lives of others in their desperate efforts to profit illegally through destruction by fire. Other states are joining the movement.

Lives and property are becoming safer as a result of ceaseless vigilance against this crime of crimes.

Even more gratifying results will follow a keener realization of the menace and cost of incendiary fires. There are many ways in which the public may cooperate in aiding the authorities to punish the guilty.

A copy of "The Crime of Crimes," an interesting booklet on arson and incendiarism, may be had upon request.

J. Audley Boak Makes Report As Grange Overseer

Delivers Message To State
Granges At Session In Indiana This Afternoon

MANY DELEGATES FROM COUNTY THERE

J. Audley Boak, Overseer of the Pennsylvania State Grange, delivered his annual report to the members of the grange in session at Indiana, Pa., this afternoon.

Approximately 1,500 grangers from all over the state are in attendance at the sessions which opened this morning and will last through Thursday. In addition to the 26 delegates, to which Lawrence County grangers are entitled, it is expected that many others will be present at various sessions during the convention, especially Wednesday evening, when the sixth degree will be conferred on a large class.

A. H. Fullerton and wife of North Beaver township have been in Indiana since Saturday. Mr. Fullerton being a member of the executive committee which had much work to do in preparation for the opening of the state convention.

Mr. Boak's report, submitted this afternoon, follows:

"Worthy Master and Members of Pennsylvania State Grange, with pleasure we bring greetings from the overseer's station.

"The year just closed has brought both pleasure and grief. The greatest, possibly, of the latter was the serious illness of our Worthy Master. But we are grateful to the Great Master above for Bro. Dorsett's recovery and trust and pray that he may be able for the many tasks that confront him and that he may not have suffered in vain.

"The duties of the Overseer have taken us into many sections of the State, and have called for our assistance in installing officers, initiation work, planting and attending many Subordinate and Pomona meetings and organizing one Grange. Possibly the most outstanding events of our years work were the completion and dedication of the Girl's Dormitory at State College and the Middle Atlantic States Lecturers Conference. Much credit and gratitude is due to the Dormitory and Home Economics Committees, and all patrons and friends who worked and assisted in any way for the completion of this former project, and to our Worthy State Lecturer for the success of our splendid Lecturer Conference.

"In a study of Grange conditions, as well as those of the country in general, we must admit that the lack of respect for law is paramount. We hear much about the crime wave, and there is reason for such a complaint. But a study of conditions is self evident that the fault is not all found in so called high places.

"We shall make a few suggestions:

"Respect and obedience have lost out in many homes, in many Granges and churches and as a result we learn that a great crime wave is sweeping our land. As a stream cannot rise above the fountain, neither can the standard of morals of our land rise above those of the home. Hence the prime object of the Grange should be to make for better homes. It is deplorable the way some Granges disrespect our laws as layed down in our digest and Manual.

"More ritualistic work should be encouraged. Model Granges should be the object in every county. Suggestions for the good of the order have received but little attention, such should not be the case.

"Our friends are those who tell us of our faults and help up mend them. The best members of a Grange are those who see the mistakes and help to mend them.

"There are many things I should like to include in this report, but time will not permit, and reports are tiresome. But I wish to call your attention to the report of our National Master, S. J. Taber, at Seattle, Wash. when he dealt with Grange problems under more than a score of different heads. Each is sufficient for a whole nights study in our granges. I trust his report is in most grange homes and urge you to study it carefully. Also our Worthy State Master's report, which includes the last words in Grange work.

"Trusting we may have a pleasant and profitable meeting, I am,

Fraternally yours,
J. AUDLEY BOAK

BEWARE OF DIETS WITHOUT BULK

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Will Protect You

People are more careful than ever before about diet. They diet to clear complexions. They avoid certain foods to stay thin. They eat others to get fat. But many are running a serious danger because they are missing the "roughage" or "bulk" foods that every person must have to keep well.

As a result, constipation gets in its deadly work. Headaches, listlessness, circled eyes are only the first symptoms. In the end, constipation ruins health, wrecks beauty and may cause serious disease.

Don't neglect your daily roughage. That is nature's rule. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will supply it. A healthful cereal to eat each day. To use in cooked dishes or to serve with milk or cream. To mix with other cereals.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation—to prevent it. Two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. It is 100% bran. Doctors recommend it. Your grocer sells it. Served by hotels, restaurants, dining cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

URGE CITIZENS TO BUY SEALS

Christmas Seal Sale Is Climbing
In Which To Buy

Only 13 shopping days remain until Christmas and many people of this county have not added some Christmas seals to their shopping list.

Thousands of these little stickers were sent out to the citizens through the mail over a week ago, and each person was asked in a letter to buy the seals in order to help stamp out tuberculosis from the community.

Many hundreds of the envelopes have come back to the office of the Associated Charities, and in many were checks which speak of the hearty endorsement which Lawrence county people give this work.

Every Christmas seal sold helps someone right here in Lawrence county to a life of health and happiness which might otherwise have been sacrificed to the ravages of disease.

People in Lawrence county who have not yet acknowledged their letter are urged to do so immediately.

A & P
Fruits and Vegetables are FRESH

Always fresh! Always in prime condition, right ready for the final preparation for your table! And you'll find every kind of fresh fruit and vegetable that you are likely to want at your A&P Store.

Honestly, now, and modestly too, if you please—we, ourselves, marvel at the way seasons have surrendered to the great A&P purchasing and transportation networks—and to the remarkable new A&P Time-Control Plan. Go to your nearest A&P Store. There you will find apples or lettuce or carrots or bananas most any time with utter disregard to the season.

And fresh! Crisply, smartly, upstandingly fresh.

A&P is now definitely able to supply the best fresh produce your money can buy! The A&P buying organization scours the country and finds the finest producing section for each food. It covers the continent to find the best in every season. It buys the best. The A&P traffic organization sees that these purchases are carefully, speedily handled—by rail and highway—until they reach your store. Its whole object is to see that these fresh foods lose none of their freshness in transit.

As a matter of policy and as a matter of absolute fact A&P fruits and vegetables are fresh. Look them over at your A&P Store today.

Mothers, Mix This
At Home for a Bad Cough

You'll be pleasantly surprised when you make up this simple home mixture and try it for a distressing cough or chest cold. It takes but a moment to mix and costs little, but it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. Pour this into a pint bottle; then fill it with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. The full pint thus made costs no more than a small bottle of ready-made medicine, yet it is much more effective. It is pure, keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

This simple remedy has a remarkable three-fold action. It goes right to the seat of trouble, loosens the green-laden phlegm, and soothes away the inflammation. Part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly upon the bronchial tubes and thus helps inwardly to throw off the whole trouble with surprising ease. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and known as one of the greatest healing agents for severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Girl Of Air Chase
Is A Widow NowMillionaire Invalid She Married
After Sensational Pursuit Dies

CLIFTON SPRINGS, N. Y., Dec. 10.—Kenneth B. Coulter, 45, millionaire invalid who figured in nationwide publicity a year ago in connection with a transcontinental chase to apprehend the girl who afterward became his wife, died at the Clifton Springs Sanitarium here of pneumonia.

Coulter was well-known as a financier and dairyman. His widow is the former Ruth McConnell, niece of Bishop Francis J. McConnell of the Methodist Episcopal church and daughter of Maj. Henry E. McConnell of Indianapolis.

The Coulter-McConnell romance leaped into the headlines on December 20, 1928, when Miss McConnell disappeared from a Rochester hotel. Dolan Meeker, at the time a University of Rochester medical student, followed her by airplane and train in the cross-country chase which, it afterward developed, was directed by Coulter.

Overtaken in San Francisco, Miss McConnell emphatically denied she was fleeing from the attentions of her wealthy suitor. From that city she went to Indianapolis and was married to Coulter there, at the home of her father, January 31, of this year.

Two Women Badly
Injured In Crash

SHARON, Pa., Dec. 10.—Two women are in Buhl hospital today with injuries sustained when an automobile driven by J. E. Weber, 20, Franklin avenue, Greenville, collided head-on with a street car in South Irvine avenue.

Miss Catherine Hilman, 20, a student nurse at Greenville hospital, is in a critical condition with a fracture of the skull and severe cuts about the head and face.

Miss Clarissa Snyder, 115 East avenue, Greenville, was less seriously hurt, escaping with lacerations about the head and face.

Weber and Jay Roberts of Sharon, operator of the street car, were uninjured.

Mrs. Julia Pugh, South Irvine avenue, a passenger on the street car, was slightly injured in the crash. She was removed to her home.

Railroad Stocks On Upward Move

Bulls Have Good Success Today With Railroad Stocks; Industrials Stationary

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Both industrial and the railroad stocks covered a great deal of ground today without arriving any place in particular.

Instead of the anticipated falling off in steel corporation unfilled tonnage, the monthly report issued at noon today showed an increase of 32,000 tons in November. The big corporation has nearly 500,000 tons more business on its books than at the same time last year. There was a better tone to the copper metal market and a broader buying demand for cotton.

Radio shorts were given another jolt when the stock was pushed along to 44 3/4 for a new gain of nearly 3 points.

The bulls had the best success with the railroad stocks, many of which have been "ripe" for a rally, not having participated in the last two upward moves. St. Paul common and preferred moved up about 2 1/2 points each. New Haven rose 3 points to 118; Baltimore and Ohio 3 to 121; New York Central 2 to 181 1/2 and Southern Railway 3 to 144. Stock sales at the end of the third hour were 1,300,000 shares less than in the same period yesterday.

Governor Fisher Attacked Today On Floor Of Senate

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Governor John S. Fisher of Pennsylvania, was described on the floor of the senate today as a "kept politician" by Senator Caraway (D) of Arkansas in a speech assailing the prospective appointment of Joseph R. Grundy, so-called "Granddaddy of all Lobbyists" to the senate seat vacated by William S. Vare.

Caraway was angered by Fisher's statement to newspapers that his selection of Vare's successor could not be dictated by senators.

STOCKMAN GETS PECULIAR DEER

Large Buck Is Secured By Assistant Fire Chief

H. Clare Stockman, assistant chief of the fire department, and Roscoe Winigal of Warren, O., have returned home from Potter county, where they have been spending several days hunting big game.

Mr. Stockman, who is a veteran and widely known sportsman, was successful in shooting one of the largest deer reported by hunters of this section, so far this season.

It is an eight-point buck weighing about 200 pounds. Mr. Stockman is of the opinion that this is one of the deer imported by the state game commission some years ago from Michigan, because of the fact that it has a slit cut in its right ear, which is the manner in which the game commission marked this imported stock.

There is also another peculiarity of the deer shot by Mr. Stockman and that is the fact that at some time probably a number of years ago, that it had shot off or lost by accident one of its front legs, as the place the lost limb should be located is covered with fur and completely healed over.

This, according to Mr. Stockman, did not appear to interfere with its

Castle Appointed Temporarily As New Japanese Ambassador

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Appointment of Wm. R. Castle, under Secretary of State, as temporary Ambassador to Japan during the period of the London naval conference was announced by President Hoover today. Castle will proceed to Tokyo immediately and serve until the conclusion of the naval conference, when he will return to Washington and resume his duties as assistant secretary of state.

The temporary appointment was ascribed to Mr. Hoover's desire to have a fully-empowered Ambassador at Tokyo during the naval conference, instead of the Charge d'Affaires who has been conducting the embassy there since the retirement of Ambassador MacVeagh.

President Hoover has experienced difficulty in filling this post. Ex-Gov. Alvan T. Fuller of Massachusetts declined it, and Roy O. East of Chicago proved unavailable.

The Story Of The Panama Canal
Part 2—Early Interest In A Trans-Isthmian Canal

AS EARLY AS 1846 THE UNITED STATES BECAME INTERESTED IN THE PROJECT OF DIGGING A CANAL THROUGH CENTRAL AMERICA TO CONNECT THE ATLANTIC WITH THE PACIFIC OCEAN. OUR INTEREST AROSE FROM OUR HAVING ACQUIRED TERRITORY ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

IN THAT YEAR THE DISPUTE WITH ENGLAND OVER THE OREGON BOUNDARY WAS SETTLED. MANY AMERICAN SETTLERS WERE MOVING WESTWARD INTO THE OREGON COUNTRY. OTHERS WERE MIGRATING TO CALIFORNIA WHICH WAS THEN PART OF MEXICO.

IN 1846 THE UNITED STATES MADE A TREATY WITH COLOMBIA (THEN NEW GRANADA), BY WHICH THE FORMER WAS GRANTED A TRANSIT ROUTE ACROSS THE ISTHMUS OF PANAMA. IN RETURN THE UNITED STATES AGREED TO GUARANTEE THE SUPREME AUTHORITY OF COLOMBIA IN THE ISTHMUS AND KEEP THE ROUTE NEUTRAL.

TWO YEARS LATER THIS TREATY WAS RATIFIED, AND AN AMERICAN COMPANY WENT TO WORK ON THE ISTHMUS. NOTHING WAS DONE ABOUT A CANAL AT THIS TIME, BUT THE CONSTRUCTION OF A RAILWAY ACROSS PANAMA WAS BEGUN, AND COMPLETED IN SEVERAL YEARS.

Church League Season Opens

Third U. P. Team Trips Presbyterians; Wesley M. E. Quintet Swamps Mahoning M. E.

The New Castle Church basketball league got away to a flying start on the Y. M. C. A. floor on Monday night, with two games being played. The Third U. P. team defeated the Central Presbyterians 15 to 12, and the Wesley M. E. team handed the Mahoning M. E. team a 23 to 4 lacing.

In the first game the playing was close and interesting with the final outcome in doubt until the whistle blew. At the end of the first half the score stood at 9 to 8 in favor of the Third U. P. team. The Presbyterians had a hard time in locating the hoops. Campbell was the only player for the Presbyterians able to score from the field, he had five field goals. McClymonds had four baskets for the winners, with Lutz and Mansfield each having one apiece. Neither team showed much on the foul line.

Mottinger-Rech Star
The Wesley M. E. team started off with a bang in their game with the Mahoning M. E. quintet, and at the end of the first half had a lead of 13 to 2. The Seventh Ward boys could not score from the field the first half. B. Rech and Mottinger played good basketball for the Wesley team. In the second half the Wesley team scored ten more points to two for the Mahoning team. Spencer had the only field goal for the Mahoning. Mottinger and B. Rech continued to play good basketball in the second half scoring three markers between them.

The summaries:
Third U. P. 15, Central Presbyterians 12
Mansfield, F. Campbell
McClymonds, F. Sargent
Lutz, C. Jones
Crawford, G. Rebeck

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

By ED. FRITZ

By THE PINCH HITTER

Emmett Rocco, Ellwood City heavyweight, won a close decision over Moiz Boquillon of France, in the semi-final windup to the Risiko-Schaaf fight at Cleveland, Ohio, last night. Rocco looked good against the Frenchman.

It was a grand rally in the final three rounds that gave the Ellwood City brawler his victory. The early rounds of the fight were even. It was the first appearance of the foreigner in the American ring, and he showed up well.

Arthur the Great Shires, White Sox badboy, stopped Dan Daly of Cleveland in the first round of a scheduled fight in Chicago. Daly had everything but fight, he was confidence plus, but Shires put over the haymaker in thirteen seconds and Daly was stretched on the canvas.

Daly claimed that he was going to avenge the licking handed Lena Blackburne, Chicago White Sox manager, by Shires last summer, but Daly ought to take another guess before he takes up somebody else's battles. To be a fighter you must have something else besides a prayer.

Jimmy Belmont, the lad managed by "Reddy" Mason who has shown at the Jolly Bowl, had his chance in a main bout with Farmer Joe Cooper, at Pittsburgh last night, but the Terre Haute battler was too clever for him. The show was staged in the Motor Square Garden. Belmont lacked experience.

Phil Scott, Englishman, heavy-weight aspirant won on a foul in the second round of a scheduled 12-round bout with Otto Von Porat at Madison Square Garden last night. The British boy went down groaning in the second round, and no one at the ringside seemed to see the blow struck.

Jack Dempsey, former heavy-weight champion referred the Scott-Von Porat fight and the ending came too sudden for him. Dempsey after examining Scott declared that Von Porat had fouled him and his decision was recorded. It was a poor ending to a great-billed show. The fans were quite disappointed.

The New Castle High football team will banquet tonight at The Castle-ton. Jimmy Hagan, Assistant Athletic Director at Pitt will be present tonight and has promised to bring one of the Pitt varsity stars with him. The banquet will start at 6 o'clock, to be followed by a dance.

Duquesne University basketball team opened their mid-west invasion last night, by dropping to the University of Iowa 35 to 26. The "Dukes" put up a classy game against the Hawkeyes, but were not equal to the task of outscoring their opponents. The game was a thriller from start to finish, and had the crowd on their feet in the final moments of play.

There are no exceptions. Even the finest motor cars eventually develop

A CHRISTMAS POEM

IT'S ABOUT TIME THE KIDS WERE RELIEVED OF RECITING "T'WAS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS" AND OTHER OLD FAVORITES—KIDS, HERE'S A NEW ONE FOR YOU AND YOU CAN HAVE IT WITH MY COMPLIMENTS—

McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N. Y.

I'M TIRED OF THE POETRY THEY ASK ME TO RECITE, OF GOBLINS, SNOW AND SANTA CLAUS ON EVERY CHRISTMAS NIGHT, I DEARLY LOVE THE YULETIDE AND THE SOLEMN CHIMES THAT RING, BUT THE OLD-TIME RECITATION—WELL IT DOESN'T MEAN A THING. THE ONLY CHRISTMAS SONG THAT REALLY FILLS MY HEART WITH JOY IS SUNG IN STORES GIGANTIC BY THE ELEVATOR BOY—

HIS VOICE RINGS LOUD AND CLEARLY AS HE STOPS ON EVERY FLOOR, MY HEART'S FILLED WITH ECSTASY EACH TIME I HEAR HIM ROAR: "TOY AEROPLANES AND UNDERWEAR AND PUZZLES, TOOLS AND CLOCKS, AND KULELES, KIDDIE KARS, DILL PICKLES, TIES AND SOCKS, AND DANCING BEARS AND BOOKS AND STILTS AND PISTOLS, FISH AND GLUE, AND PRINTING PRESSES, ROLLER SKATES AND ALLIGATORS, TOO—"

AND FOUNTAIN PENS AND RUBBER HEELS, ELECTRIC TRAINS, BALLOONS, AND RADIOS AND PHONOGRAPHS THAT PLAY THE LATEST TUNES, AND LOLLIPOPS, FALSE WHISKERS, KNIVES AND POKIES HORNS AND NUTS, AND FIRE HOUSES, TOY GARAGES, BUNGALOWS AND HUTS— THESE WORDS SO SWEET AND BEAUTIFUL RING GAILY DOWN THE YEARS. THE ELEVATOR BOY'S REFRAIN IS MUSIC TO MY EARS!

Boosters Trim Oil City Again

New Castle Boosters Take Close Game 28 To 24 At Oil City Monday Night

The New Castle Boosters basketball team journeyed to Oil City last night and hung a 28 to 24 defeat on the Oil City Howitzer team in a fast game played at the Oil City Armory floor. It was the second time this year that the locals have upset the Venango countians.

The score at the end of the first quarter favored the locals 6 to 2. The half found New Castle leading 14 to 7. The third period was a repetition of the first quarter with the Fraser crew leading 29 to 12, having scored six more points to five for Oil City. The Oilers came back strong in the fourth period to score 12 points to fight for the locals and nearly overtook the Lawrence countians.

Franklin Shines
Bruce Franklin started his first game for the locals, was the big star with five buckets, while Uhle at a guard post played a fine game and had three field goals. Alexander and Captain Sid Lockley helped in the scoring with two baskets apiece. Dehner was the big star for Oil City with four markers, while Captain Porter played a fine game on the defense. Curran and Porter each had two baskets for the Howitzers.

It was the third victory in four starts for the Boosters and Coach Fraser is very well pleased.

The summary:
Oil City: Dehner, Kulich, Alexander, Curran, Uhle, Porter, Sid Lockley, Henderson, Sub: New Castle: Hill and Elroy Lockley; Oil City: Gibbs, Mooney. Field goals—Franklin 5, Uhle 3, Sid Lockley 2, Alexander 2, Dehner 4, Curran 2, Porter 2, Mott. Fouls—New Castle 4-9, Oil City 6-12. Referee—D. Stormer. Timer—Fitzgerald. Scorer—C. Miller.

Kandy Kids Win From Mechanicals

Shelby Tube Mechanicals Are Defeated At Wampum By Score 25 To 22

The Ellwood Mechanicals took a sock on the nose when the K. K. Klub got revenge by taking the return game on the Wampum floor, 25 to 22. The over-confident aggregation from Ellwood, outweighing the "kids" from Wampum between 25 to 30 pounds to the man, were completely played off their pins. Ferrucci, the 190-pound phenom of the Mechanicals, was held to a lone field goal by his diminutive brother Joe, who tips the scales at 130, and it was by no means brotherly love.

Coach Patterson, the shining light of the "Specialty" of Ellwood, proved he knew too much basketball for the "cocky" Mechanicals. The Mechanicals took the lead early in the first quarter when Lebate sank two in rapid succession. Coach Patterson injected Roberts in the lineup and proved he had an ace in the hole. Boone, White and Aiello were the big guns and kept the locals in the lead throughout the game. With the K. K. Klub leading 23 to 22, and only one minute left to play, Hennon, subbing for Aiello, dribbled through the "impenetrable" defense of the Mechanicals and put the game on ice.

The K. K. Klub has an open date for a game away on December 20 and would like to book an attraction on the Wampum floor for Christmas night. Kindly call Wampum 145 at 7 o'clock and get in touch with Manager Sturgeon.

Summary:
Ellwood: J. White, F. Labate, Boone, F. S. Ferrucci, Aiello, C. Michlich, J. Ferrucci, C. Hampton, Demark, G. L. White, Sub: Wampum: Hennon, Roberts; Ellwood: Arnold. Field goals—Wampum: J. White 3, Boone 4, Aiello 3, Hennon; Ellwood: Labate 4, Ferrucci, Michlich, Hampton 2, L. White 2. Fouls—Wampum: Boone 3 out of 4, White 0 out of 1; Ellwood: Labate 1 out of 4, Arnold 0 out of 1, Hampton 0 out of 1, White 1 out of 4. Referee—Boone. Timekeepers—Dimley and R. Blythe. Scorer—Sturgeon.

High Floormen Look Impressive

Wilksburg High Will Help Locals Pry Off Lid On 1929-30 Season Here Friday

Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh of the New Castle high school has just about decided who will start Friday night when Wilksburg high inaugurates the season for the local floormen. A practice lasting two hours was held yesterday at the senior high gym. Bridenbaugh has developed a defense that appears to be hard to penetrate. Luther Rowe, a new boy on the squad, appears to have the "goods" this year. This lad can certainly handle the ball from all angles of the floor and looks promising. Much is expected from Rowe during the floor season.

He will be used on one of the forward positions. Arthur Alexander has just about clinched the pivot assignment. Nick Uram and "Red" McAuley will more than likely be the guards for Friday night while Russell Hannon will probably start at the other forward position. The game Friday night will start at 8 o'clock, according to Ralph H. Gardner, faculty manager.

Sport's Heroes Of 1929

Almost by acclamation Frank "Lefty" O'Doul, of Philadelphia's Phillies and Lew Fonseca, of the Cleveland Indians, were named the most valuable players in the National and American leagues, respectively, at the close of the 1929 season. O'Doul dazzled with his consistent, tremendous hitting, achieving league leadership finally with a 400 batting average. "Lefty" was also a most competent outfielder—his all round play certainly earning that "most valuable players" distinction. O'Doul's achievement is dramatic, striking in that he was a cast-off—a failure with the Yankees, Red Sox, Cubs and Giants. "Lefty" entered the big leagues as a pitcher. John McGraw was patient, but, after careful study, baseball's most famous master mind decided that "Lefty" was "just another player." And so O'Doul soon found himself struggling for recognition with the lowly Phillies. Colossal courage, a fixed and flaming will to show McGraw he was wrong, and heretofore undiscovered batting power were O'Doul's chief assets when exiled to Philadelphia. Striking his stride early in the season "Lefty" became the most talked of new star in baseball before midsummer. And he maintained that remarkable pace right through the final game. Fonseca was also a sensation throughout the season—a fielding marvel at first base and a consistently heavy hitter. He, too, smarted a cast off past that in 1926 sent him to the minors. Picked up by Cleveland as a utility player, Fonseca got a regular assignment when a hold-out situation developed. He led the league with 369, five points above the celebrated Al Simmons. The emphatically great all-season performances of both O'Doul and Fonseca, erstwhile while-offs make them quite definitely baseball's biggest heroes of 1929.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Otto Von Porat admitted after the fight that he had struck Phil Scott low, but declared that his opponent took the "easiest way out." Von Porat added: "I hit him below the belt, but nowhere near as hard as he made out. It wasn't nearly hard enough to drop him off his feet. I never fouled a man in my life. I have never even been warned for hitting low. Scott had a chance to get out, and he took it."

The new skirts, long enough in spots to please one faction and short enough in spots to please the other show the typical American reform at its best.

Ellwood Quintet To Play Boosters

Shelby Tube All-Stars To Oppose Boosters Wednesday; Gersons To Play Grovers

Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A. two fast basketball teams are on tap. The All-Stars of the Shelby Tube Mill of Ellwood City will play the New Castle Boosters in the main game. The Gersons will meet the fast Lincoln Club team of Grove City in the preliminary game. The first game will start at 8 o'clock.

Coach Keith Van Fossan has the Gersons primed for the battle and they hope to take over the Lions team, which is reputed to be a fast aggregation.

The Boosters hope to add the All-Stars to their list of victories. The Ellwoodians will bring a strong team here, and they are confident of taking the measure of the locals, however. Coach Fraser and his gang will have something to say about that. Last Saturday at the Shelby gym the All-Stars took a close one 29 to 28. Quite a crowd of Ellwood City fans will follow the Shelby team to New Castle tomorrow night for the battle.

Von Porat Admits Hitting Scott Low

Norwegian Boxer Admits That He Fouled Scott, But Says Scott Took Easy Way Out

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Otto Von Porat admitted after the fight that he had struck Phil Scott low, but declared that his opponent took the "easiest way out." Von Porat added: "I hit him below the belt, but nowhere near as hard as he made out. It wasn't nearly hard enough to drop him off his feet. I never fouled a man in my life. I have never even been warned for hitting low. Scott had a chance to get out, and he took it."

Phil Scott In Line For Bout With Sharkey

Otto Von Porat Fouts Phil Scott In Second Round At New York City

By DAVIS J. WALSH
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—As a result of three minutes and 25 seconds of actual effort, Phil Scott, of England, is within reach today of that million dollar bauble they call the world's heavyweight championship. He stands qualified as one of three men who are the heirs-apparent to the throne, the authority for this statement being furnished by commissioner William Muldoon, and not by the mugs who hooted Philip as he was borne tenderly out of there last night after being hit low by Otto Von Porat at the start of the second round. However, the demonstration was unimportant. A mugg can't qualify you. All he can do is hoot you. Scott was both hooted and cheered as he left the ring, feet first and grimacing like a babshee, after being hit below the dead line with a left boom. Was he hurt? How should I know? Von Porat didn't hit me. As for Mr. John Dempsey, the referee fellow, he seemed to be more at a loss than the other 17,000 in the house and the whole evening was lost to them.

Backing up the plan of Governor General Davis to increase the tourist traffic of the Philippines the Rotary Club of Manila has established a tourist bureau in the city.

Kiwanians And Ladies Celebrate Holiday Season

Stanley A. Gillespie, Historian, Talks On Progress Of Pennsylvania

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 10.—Monday night in the dining room of the Lutheran church the Kiwanians entertained their ladies at a Christmas dinner party.

Sam Luman, in the disguise of Santa Claus, gave favors to all in a jovial manner. Seasonal decorations were used and a good time enjoyed. The speaker of the evening was Stanley A. Gillespie, prominent historian from Greenville, who told interesting tales concerning the early struggles of the Keystone state.

Fight Fans Listen To Rocco Monday

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 10.—Local fight fans, who have been interested following the career of Emmet Rocco of this city, as a fighter, were delighted at the decision he won over Moiz Boquillon in Cleveland Monday night.

The fight was broadcast over WTAM and many radio groups got together to listen to the returns. It was Boquillon's first appearance in an American ring, and seemed to hold his own against Rocco's rushing attacks in the first rounds. But later the local fighter wore him out, and won the decision for Ellwood City.

Annual Dinner Event Enjoyed

Limestone Company Executives Gather Here For Banquet Monday

Following a pleasant custom established some nine years ago, the executive and departmental heads of the Lake Erie Limestone company, Union Limestone company and the New Castle Lime and Stone company met for the annual dinner Monday evening, December 9, in the Elks Home on North Mill street.

Approximately forty were present, including a few guests, with Superintendent Walter W. Duff acting as toastmaster of the evening. Several short addresses were made, with Dr. Philip C. Pearson, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, as the main speaker of the evening. His theme was "War and Peace" and in developing theme he brought out the necessity of peace if the world was to advance. He also made an eloquent plea for the recognition of peace time heroes who he said were equally worthy as those of war.

Assemblyman Bart Richards spoke briefly on "Highways," and Attorney John P. Lockhart waxed humorous at the expense of the other speakers. W. M. Andrews, secretary and treasurer of the companies congratulated the men and women present for the splendid record set in the past year. Paul Durban of Lowellville, general superintendent spoke on "Safety" and urged the continuance of safety doctrine in the quarries.

The arrangements for the dinner were made by Miss Maude Keyser, welfare nurse of the companies and following the speaking program, cards were enjoyed. In addition to the executives and departmental heads, the following guests were present: D. H. Wendell and J. W. Anstead, of Johnstown, Pa.; Ira M. Smith, of Pittsburgh; W. T. Withers, of Struthers; R. J. Williams, of New Castle; W. J. Maurice, of Lowellville.

Fogarty-Tunney Arguments Will Be Heard Friday

(International News Service)
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 10.—Arguments are to be heard here Friday on a demurrer brought in by Mrs. Katherine Fogarty of Ft. Worth, Tex., against Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion.

If the demurrer upon which arguments are to be heard is overruled a formal answer to the counter-demurrer must then be filed. Indications are that weeks will elapse before all issues in the action are joined and the case finally comes to trial.

SEALS MAILED UPON REQUEST

Lawrence County Tuberculosis Society hopes that all those who did not receive their allotment of Christmas Seals would notify the society by phoning 5084 and Christmas seals will be gladly mailed at once. In packing the thousands of seals it is very easy to miss some people. If there are newcomers in town who would like to be added to the Christmas seal list, the Tuberculosis Society would appreciate if they will make it be known.

Fire Damages West Side Home

Firemen Have Vain Search For Occupants Alleged To Have Been Trapped In House

Fire originating from an overheated furnace caused damage of $700 to the home and contents of James Woodson of 703 State street at 8:30 last evening.

On arriving on the scene, firemen were informed that there was a crippled woman in the flame swept structure, neighbors stating that they had heard her scream before the firemen arrived. Windows were broken in on the second floor to let the smoke out and firemen Byron Zeitler and Harry Colley searched through the smoke filled rooms on the second floor but were unable to find anyone. Later another neighbor told them that the lady had not been at home all day, and that her husband had been home only an hour or so before the fire started and had built a fire in the furnace.

The overheated furnace set fire to the floor and then followed the cold air shaft upstairs. There was a brisk blaze going when the men from the sixth ward and central departments arrived on the scene.

It was not learned whether there was any insurance carried on the place or not.

Last night was the third time within a week that fires have occurred in buildings where no person was at home, and the firemen were told people were inside. The firemen endeavored their lives entering these buildings only to find no one there. Chief Lynn asks people to be sure in instances of this kind that the people are inside.

Amateur Electricians

DO NOT fool with electrical fixtures unless you know your business. The safe way is to call in some one who does know. If you must do your own repairing see to it that the current is turned off before starting in with your work. The National Safety Council calls attention to the fact that a great many amateur electricians get into trouble simply because they do not realize that the ordinary 110-volt current can carry a pretty hard wallop.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Prices Fluctuate At Opening Of Market

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Industrial stocks were depressed in the first hour today by another wave of short selling and profit-taking similar to that which blocked the bull move in the final period yesterday. The reaction was brought to a close as soon as the nervous shorts started bidding for stocks with which to cover up their short lines, and prices of the industrial leaders were jacked up sharply.

U. S. Steel, which broke below 180 at the start, rallied to 184 1-4 in active trading. American and Foreign Power moved up about 4 points; Bethlehem Steel 2; National Cash register 2 and American Can about 40 per cent from the same period yesterday, and the market was largely in control of the professionals, with a tapering demand from outside sources.

Not so much was heard about the rumored split-up of U. S. Steel stock, but bulls in the stock pointed to its mounting earnings for proof that another stock dividend is inevitable soon or later. Uncertainty in the copper metals markets was reflected in the smaller buying demand for Anaconda, Kennecott and other red metals favorites. General Electric was again under fire and sold off to 240, down 17 points since the split-up announcement was made.

The market settled down to a routine in the second hour, with prices again showing a downward tendency. Contrasted with yesterday's half-hour-late ticker, the tape was only a few minutes behind actual trading on the floor of the board. Oil stocks were again under pressure as the result of gasoline price cutting at important consuming points. With the exception of General Motors, which rose to 43 1/2, the motor stocks were unable to hold the new gain acquired in yesterday's session, and returned in some cases to low levels of the week.

New Haven's new rise to 112 was the feature of the rails, this stock was recently placed on a 6 per cent dividend basis and net earnings of the road are currently running at $11 a share. Baltimore and Ohio was up 1 1/2 at 119 1/2. Norfolk Southern was steady around 19 following the announcement of the passing of the dividend. Erie was well bought at 64 1-4, up 1 1/2.

Call money was unchanged at 4 1/2 per cent.

Publishers To Make Protest

Believe Canadian Move To Increase Price Of Paper Unjustified

MAY ASK PROBE INTO CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The board of directors and the newspaper committee of the American Newspaper Publishers association is in session to consider what form of protest, if any they will make to the federal government against proposed newspaper price increases by American and Canadian paper manufacturers.

At a special newsprint convention of newspaper publishers from both the United States and Canada Monday a resolution was adopted directing the officers of the A. N. P. A. to "take up with the federal authorities the question as to whether there is any redress open in this situation through federal government action."

Denounce Manufacturers.

Although the publishers from the floor denounced various paper manufacturers and unitedly opposed any increase in newsprint prices, upon caution by Edward H. Butler, president of the association no motions looking to definite action were entertained at the meeting.

Butler had advised that all recommendations be made to the board of directors and only the one resolution was passed upon.

The directors and paper committee members are expected to act upon it. Called upon by the president to voice their opinions of the proposed $5 a ton increase in newsprint price the publishers were unanimous in declaring the present rate of $55 a ton adequate for the manufacturers.

Financial Interests Responsible.

The part taken by the provincial governments of Ontario and Quebec in advocating higher newsprint prices was declared by Charles Taylor of the Boston Globe and other publishers to have been brought about by pressure of financial interests which control paper mills now running at a loss in these provinces.

A survey of newsprint manufacturing costs was advocated by Walter A. Strong of the Chicago Daily News. S. E. Thomason of the Chicago Times, former newsprint committee chairman added that congress should undertake this investigation and govern newsprint prices through the law of supply and demand.

Figures compiled by the A. N. P. A. showed there is an oversupply of newsprint at present.

E. K. Gaylord of the Oklahoma City Times charged that attempts to increase newsprint prices are in "open defiance of the law" and a violation of the Clayton act. He recommended an investigation by the attorney general into price agreements between rival paper manufacturers, declaring such to be in violation of the anti-trust laws.

Caliphs Ready For Ceremonial

Bagdadians To Dissect Topics Of Day On Thursday Night

For several hours Thursday evening, Dec. 12, the Caliphs of Bagdad will forget about the World Court and the price of tub butter; the influence of the early mosaic well diggers upon present day plumbers and the tendency of Airedales to have whiskers. For Thursday night is the night of the annual fall full ceremonial, or the full fall ceremonial of the Caliphs, to be held in the Cathedral.

Unfortunately the moon is not cooperating to the fullest extent, as it will be only half full, which is just 50 per cent of what the ceremonial will be.

The Chief Caliph has his sword shined up and his brass knuckles, or rather his brass buttons, and the committee upon inland navigation reports progress. The refreshment committee looks refreshed and the degree team is about 112 degrees.

Candidates and members from all over western Pennsylvania will be here for the ceremonial and what it takes to make a large evening the Caliph party will have in gobs.

Notre Dame Downs Marines In Opener

Win First Two But Loose Third Engagement At Y By 15-9 Score

In the opening engagement of the four-team volleyball league at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday the Notre Dame team took two of the three games played against the Marines.

The third game was won by a 17-15 score, the second by a 15-13 score and the Marines battled their way to win the last of the three by the score of 15 to 9.

Considerable interest was manifested in the league at the opening games yesterday, and from present indications it appears that more teams will enter the race. Next Friday at noon the Army team will oppose the Navy.

Lively Beer Sprays Counsel When Bottle Is Opened In Court

Unlooked For Demonstration Of Power Is Seen When Attorney Pushes Cap

When Attorney Kraus pushed the cap off a beer bottle in the trial of Frances Baron of Park Gate in Judge Chambers' courtroom this morning, the beer registered its kick by spraying high toward the ceiling. Attorney Samuel Clark and State Policeman Shulick, who were at an opposite table, saved themselves from being drenched by a quick jump backward. Kraus was more or less damped by the beer, some of it sprayed over toward the jury and the counsel table at which Kraus sat with his client was a mess. The beer didn't stop spouting until nearly all of it was out of the bottle. It had been standing in a heated room for some time and had been considerably shaken up when Kraus gave his demonstration. For some time after the occurrence there was an aroma in the courtroom that made it smell like a brewery.

There was also a bottle of wine on the table that had demonstrated its inability to stand without hitching when it had been opened some time before. The wine, it was alleged, had been secured in Mrs. Baron's cellar when the place was raided. Mrs. Baron claimed that it had soured and she had left it down in the cellar in expectation that it might turn into vinegar. Mrs. Baron also denied that she had ever sold any beer. The bottles which were found in her home, she said, contained a beverage which she had made for home consumption and she did not know that there was any alcoholic content. The alcoholic content was discovered when the commonwealth had an analysis made. The case is still on trial.
